KNOCKED OUT.

Myer and Carroll Fight at New Orleans.

The Battle Lasts Forty-three Rounds
-Some Savage Slogging.

Carroll Had the Best of It for a Time-Myer Wins.

Coming Fight Events-Slavin and Sullivan to Fight to a Finish-Mitchell and Corbett to Fight Soon.

By Telegraph to The Times.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 22. - [By the Associated Press.] Nearly 4000 persons witnessed the great light-weight fight at the Olympic Club tonight between Billy Myer and Jimmy Carroll for a purse of $5000. The men entered the ring promptly at 9 o'clock. Myer was seconded by Eddie Myer, Link Pope and Alf Kennedy, while Carroll was looked after by Bob Fitzsimmons, John C.
Griffin, Austin Gibbons and James Robinson. Prof. John Duffy was referee.
Carroll tipped the scale at 138 1/2 and Myer at 137 1/2 pounds. The gloves were weighed by Police Captain Barrett and pronounced fully five ounces, the weight required by law. At the request of the Myer party the pivot blow was barred.

First round-Carroll feinted with his left. Myer dodged and both were wary.

Second round-Carroll landed a heavy
stomach receiving a light return.

Third round-First blood was allowed for Myer. Carroll landed a heavy left without receiving a return. The round closed slightly in Carroll's favor.

Fourth round-After rapid exchanges of light blows Myer landed a heavy right on Carroll's face.

Fifth round-Carroll hit Myer twice on the nose.

Sixth round-Myer still on the defensive.
Carroll received a return. Carroll forced him to the ropes, but did no damage.

Seventh round-Carroll landed a heavy left on Myer's nose, nearly upsetting him. Myer landed a heavy body blow, drawing a grunt from Carroll.

Eighth round-The men clinched, being separated by the referee.

Ninth round-Carroll landed a right on Myer's face.

Tenth round-Blows on the jaw were exchanged, honors still being even at the close.

swinging blow on the stomach, and attempting to repeat it was nearly thrown by Myer.

Twelfth round-Myer received a heavy right on the mouth.

Thirteenth round-Carroll nearly knocked his opponent down with a right-hander. Both exchanged heavy rights and lefts, then came to a clinch.

Fourteenth round-Carroll landed heavily right and left on Myer's nose and both men fell in the rally.

Fifteenth round-Carroll landed his right on Myer's jaw, ducked against Myer's left and the latter fell against the ropes.

Sixteenth round-Nothing of much interest was done.

Seventeenth round-Carroll landed a heavy right-hander, staggering Myer.
Myer showed anger and there was sharp fighting, the round ending slightly in favor of Carroll.

From this up to the twenty-seventh round, while there were a number of sharp blows exchanged, there was nothing serious, both men appearing very cautious.

Twenty-seventh round-Carroll now landed his left on Myer's stomach and both men appeared to be getting savage again.

Twenty-eighth round-Carroll landed a terrible blow on the ribs and forced Myer into his corner.

In the twenty-ninth and thirtieth rounds Carroll also landed well, particularly in the thirtieth, when he landed two heavy swings on Myer's neck and a left drive in the stomach.

Thirty-first round-Carroll landed heavily right and left on the stomach and neck. Myer landed a glancing left on Carroll's jaw, but received a left swing shortly after. Myer aimed right and left, and Carroll ducked away, came back and landed a left on the neck and repeated it.

Thirty-second round-Honors were about even.

Thirty-third round-Myer received a terrible blow from Carroll's left on the nose. A heavy exchange followed and Carroll slipped to the floor. He was knocked down again and looked groggy.

Thirty-fourth round-Myer was aggressive. There was heavy fighting throughout and both men were winded.

Thirty-fifth round-Myer hit Carroll on the jaw, knocking him down. Carroll landed a heavy left and right on Myer's jaw, whereupon Myer retaliated in a savage manner.

Thirty-sixth round-Myer was knocked down, but he seemed to stand heavy work the better.

Thirty-seventh round-Myer landed left and right on Carroll's face and a moment later received a heavy right on the jaw. Carroll then got a heavy left on the nose which drove his head back and Myer began fighting for the body.

Myer invariably missed his famous right drives, but seemed strong. He continued to push the matter in the thirty-eighth.

In the thirty-ninth round Carroll landed several times and received vicious blows in return.

In rounds 40, 41, and 42 Myer landed two lefts on Carroll's head and received a punch in return. Carroll landed a good left on Myer's jaw with a repeater. Within a moment Myer met two more in the same spot, and knocked Carroll down with a right on the jaw.
Desperate fighting followed. Carroll ducked several times to avoid vicious swings. Myer forced Carroll around the ring, receiving several heavy lefts on the nose while so engaged.

Forty-third round-Myer came up aggressive. Carroll was weak. Heavy

Valparaiso Police Exonerated
from All Blame.

Four Men Held on Charges of Assaulting the Sailors.

A Report to be Rendered on This Finding - The Cruiser San Francisco Loaded with Ammunition and Ready to Go South.

By Telegraph to The Times.
NEW YORK, Dec. 23. - [By the Associated Press.] The Herald's Valparaiso special says: "Judge of Crimes Foster has concluded the inquiry into the assault upon the sailors of the Baltimore and passed the testimony to the Prosecutor General, who will lay down the law, after which the judge will give his decision. The testimony makes 300 pages.

"It asserts that there is not the slightest evidence of handcuffing or bad treatment by the police. Seaman Garrett thought, but was not sure, that a policeman stabbed him. All the Baltimore sailors except Brown, who appeared to have been perfectly sober, acknowledged that they had been drinking. The court was kept waiting for evidence because Capt. Schley said that Minister Egan would procure other witnesses. The judge's inquiry is now completed without these witnesses having appeared. Four of the accused rioters are held. Gomez acknowledges stabbing the coal heaver, Turnbull, three times in the back. Gomez, however, asserts that he was defending some friends whom Turnbull had knocked down.

"Ajumas, another prisoner, denies participation in the assault, but the evidence of other witnesses is to the effect that he engaged in it. Rodriguez acknowledges that he stabbed Riggins because Riggins assaulted one of the sailors of the Almirante Cochrane. Cortez, the fourth prisoner, who is a Santa Cruz negro, claims that he was not mixed in the riot. He had a revolver, but alleged that he carried it to defend himself. The judge says there are strong doubts as to Cortez's complicity in the affair.

"One witness testified that he saw three policemen holding Riggins when he was shot. Our sailors' stories were the same they gave aboard the Baltimore after the assault. The evidence of saloon-keepers and other witnesses was very conflicting.

"Minister of Foreign Affairs Matta sent a reply to the Argentine Minister, Urriburu, in regard to Chilean espionage upon the American legation.
Matta promises to withdraw the detectives, but says he will continue to maintain uniformed police around the legation."

ENCOUNTERED GARZA.
The San Francisco's Crew Anxious to Get to Chile.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22. - [By the Associated Press.] The cruiser San Francisco came down from Mare Island navy-yard this morning and anchored in the stream. It is expected that she will put to sea shortly. The entire crew was busy on Monday taking aboard ammunition, and she now has no less than 200 tons stowed away in her capacious magazines. A large portion of this is labeled "For the Charleston," and this is being transferred to that vessel, somewhere to the south. Tomorrow the San Francisco will still further increase her supply of coal and will then be ready to proceed to any part of the world. It is stated that no orders have been received regarding her future movements, but every man on board believes that she will at once proceed to Chile to take part in a naval demonstration there.

It was the general impression that the Charleston would come to this port from Honolulu, but the fact that such a quantity of munitions of war intended for her are on board the San Francisco seems to indicate that she has received orders to meet the latter vessel at some Central American port, probably Acapulco, where the ammunition would be transferred, both ships coal and proceed to Chile together. This is further borne out by the fact that the Charle-stown's mail is held here for the San Francisco. The crew is elated over the prospect of having a brush with Chile.

Reliance at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 22. - After the Cabinet meeting today Secretary Blaine said there were no new developments in the Chilean affair.

The Navy Department is informed that the U.S.S. Philadelphia and Concord arrived at Port au Prince today.

Fail of Rock in a Mine.
SHAMOKIN (Pa.) Dec. 22. - Slope No.
2 of the Lake Fidler colliery is choked with thousands of tons of rock which fell with a mighty crash tonight. Anthony Socha is in the chamber and may be dead. Some think a couple of night miners were also buried.

Lynman J. Gage Improving.
NEW YORK, Dec. 22. - The condition of Lynman J. Gage, president of the First National Bank of Chicago and one of the directors of the World's Fair, who is lying ill at the Hollander House in this city, continued to improve all day and his recovery is now expected.

Two Men Killed in a Quarrel.
HUNTINGTON (Tenn.) Dec. 22. - Tom Wiley and Harry Oliver quarreled while engaged in hog killing. Oliver fatally stabbed Wiley with a pig sticking knife, but before falling Wiley crushed Oliver's head with a pole, killing him instantly.

A Tragedy Caused by Jealousy.
OMAHA, Dec. 22. - Nicholas Fox this morning shot his wife at South Omaha, and then cut his throat with a razor.
Mrs. Fox will recover, but her husband will die. Jealousy was the cause.

Judgments Against a Banker.
WILLIAMSPORT (Pa.) Dec. 22. - Judgments amounting to $200,000 have been entered here against George L.
Sanderson, a prominent business man and banker of this city. Sanderson says the judgments will probably be adjusted soon, as he has plenty of property to offset them.

Cold Weather in England.
LONDON, Dec. 22. - Intensely cold weather continues to prevail throughout England and is causing more and more distress everywhere.

Stanford's Kentucky Agent Dead.
LEXINGTON (Ky.) Dec. 22. - Col. R. S.
Strader, the well-known horseman, died today of pneumonia. He was vice-president of the Trotting Horse Breeders' Association for a number of years, and in 1887 Senator Stanford made him Kentucky agent of the Palo Alto farm.

Ocean Steamer Arrivals.
NEW YORK, Dec. 22. - Arrived: Ems from Bremen.

Orange Lands! Turkeys Free!

GREAT BARGAINS

AT... SOUTH RIVERSIDE

The finest Orange and Lemon Lands are found in this flourishing colony and the location is unsurpassed.

Great Abundance of Water.

Another pipe line is about to be constructed, bringing additional lands under irrigation.

Prices Extraordinarily Low.

Water is sold with the land. No bonds; no uncertainty as to quantity or price of water. Water conveyed in pipes to the lands. The lands are adapted to the culture of all fruits common in Southern California.

Here is the place for Homes and Investment.

Orange Heights

Is a new and attractive subdivision of a portion of the high mesa land of South Riverside Colony, and being frostless and not subject to injurious winds, offers special advantages for the cultivation of the LEMON.

The best authorities in Southern California commend these lands for the raising of Lemons. One syndicate is arranging to plant 1000 acres in Oranges and Lemons, one-half each.

Aside from its wonderful advantages as a fruit-producing colony, South Riverside is an important manufacturing point. The Pacific Clay Manufacturing Company's vitrified sewer and water-pipe works—the largest on this coast—are located here. Also the Porphyry Paving Company, the Standard Fertilizing Company, and two pottery works. This is the shipping point for the famous Temescal tin mine plant. A company is now being formed to work on a large scale the finest cement rock found in the United States. This latter company will probably employ 200 or more men. The material is at hand for additional manufactories.

The Town of South Riverside

Contains numerous business houses, and there are churches, hotels, a bank and all other improvements necessary to make a thriving town.

Come and see our new tract before purchasing elsewhere, taking the Riverside and San Bernardino train via Orange, leaving Los Angeles at 11 a.m. and 5 o'clock p.m. For full particulars call on L. T. GRAVES, agent at Los Angeles, Bryson-Bonebrake Block; or address

Voluntary Testimonials

—GIVEN TO—
DR. WOH,
The Eminent Chinese Physician.

Dr. Woh's life work has been from early youth one of persistent and untiring pliancy, study and investigation, as fully as lay in his power to perfect himself in all branches of the art of healing human sickness and disease. Born in China, of influential parents, of a family whose ancestors have been for generations deservedly renowned as leading physicians, Dr. Woh naturally followed in the footsteps of his fathers. In China he has practiced his profession for several years, being at one time a physician in the Imperial Hospital, and in America for a long time. His great number of patients, his wonderful and many cures, and the great list of letters from grateful and thankful patrons now prove him to be a remarkable and successful healer of sickness and all diseases.

For a long time I have been suffering with bladder and kidney troubles. No doctoring or medicines seemed to do me good. I consulted the best physicians and surgeons in Los Angeles city. They gave me morphine and drugs, but no relief could I obtain. After suffering great pain and having my passage almost entirely clogged, I fourteen days ago began using Dr. Woh's medicine. Today I am perfectly well. I do consider Dr. Woh the most successful physician in Southern California.

C. A. STEELE,
316 and 318 S. Main st., Los Angeles, Cal.
October 13, 1891.

I have tried many doctors for heart disease but have derived no benefit until Dr. Woh, the Chinese physician, of Los Angeles City prescribed for me. Two months ago I began his treatment and can now certify that he has done me great good. I recommend Dr. Woh to my friends as an able doctor.

Justice of the Peace,
Burbank, Cal.
Oct. 30, 1891.

Dr. Woh has hundreds of similar testimonials, but space alone prevents further publication of them here.

Dr. Woh is the oldest and best-known Chinese Physician in Southern California. His many cures have been remarkable, involving Female Troubles, Tumors and every form of disease.

All communications will be regarded as strictly confidential.

Free consultation to every one and all are cordially invited to call upon Dr. Woh at his office.

RAILROAD AFFAIRS.

Prospects of a General Strike on the Sunset.

Trains are Again Blockaded by New Mexican Snowdrifts.

Rival Trunk Lines and Their Branches in Arizona.

Still Another Road Headed for San Diego—Heavy Loads of Immigrants Retard Passenger Trains — Local Railroad Notes.

As a result of the visit of Acting Grand Chief Telegrapher Ramsey to this city yesterday, a delegation of trainmen last night accompanied him northward to attend the general conference at Oakland. At a secret meeting yesterday morning in the Trainmen's Hall near the San Fernando street depot two delegates from each of the employees' orders were selected to represent them at Oakland—conductors, brakemen, switchmen, engineers, firemen and machinists all being represented. Mr.
Ramsey made an urgent appeal to the trainmen for aid in the telegraphers' strike, representing to them that an important principle was at stake, and that they were all interested in compelling the railroad company to rescind its obnoxious order relating to affidavits. He assured them that the company's intentions were to try to suppress the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, because it is the youngest of the railroad brotherhoods and considered the weakest. Not only the telegraphers' brotherhood, but all the organizations of railroad employees will have to fight for their own existence, and he urged the necessity of uniting now to bring the vital question to an issue. The train-men present were favorable to federation, but those who were chosen delegates represent only the employees in their class on their respective divisions, not having the authority to represent the orders. Accompanying Chief Ramsay and the Los Angeles delegates on their trip northward were delegates from the Arizona division of the Southern Pacific. At the meeting in Oakland the situation will be fully canvassed, and it is expected that a general order to strike will result. If the federation of trainmen and operators is effected the strike will be a formidable one.

SANTA FE SNOW BLOCKADE.
Another serious snow blockade has tied up the Santa Fe in New Mexico.
Yesterday's overland train came in nearly on time, it having passed through before the heavy snowfall occurred, but there is no telling when today's train will arrive. The blockade is near the line between New Mexico and Colorado, and the drifts are deep. The Santa Fe company, on these occasions, provides for the comfort of passengers,
the trains remaining at eating stations until the road is cleared.

TRAINLOADS OF IMMIGRANTS.
Southern Pacific train No. 20, due at 10 o'clock last night, was reported five hours late. The cause of the delay is attributed to an extra heavy load of passengers, there being in the train five carloads of European immigrants, who landed at New Orleans. These immigrants, of whom few if any can speak English, will be brought to California to locate in the northern portion of the State. A party almost as large was brought in by the same route a few days ago.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC IN ARIZONA.
Chief Engineer W. C. Edes of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company arrived in Phoenix Saturday with thirteen men and several teams and wagons, and on the following day twelve more men with tents and wagons arrived from San Francisco, making the entire surveying party consist of twenty-five men.
Mr. Edes is quoted as saying, in regard to the object of this, that the Southern Pacific Company will build a railroad from Phoenix to Prescott by the Black Cañon route, connecting the Maricopa and Phoenix with the Arizona Central or Bullock road. This means that the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix Company has not bought the Bullock line, and will build from Ash Fork, thereby giving Phoenix two north and south roads.

SCRAP HEAP.
A Judson excursion came in yesterday.

A train was made up here to go to San Francisco last night, taking the place of the belated No. 20.

General Manager Wade, of the Southern California lines, tell a San Diego paper that his road carried into the city 3000 more people this year than it did last.

F. S. Anable has been elected general auditor of the Mexican Central Railroad Company with office in Boston.
Mass. Mr. Anable has for several years been comptroller of the Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw Road (of which Col. J. M. C. Marble of Los Angeles was formerly president,) and in his profession he has achieved an enviable reputation.

The Arizona Sentinel hears that a company has been formed in Kansas City for the purpose of building a railroad through the counties of Mojave and Yuma direct to San Diego. The road will run from Yuma, on the Atlantic and Pacific, down the Sandy to the Santa Maria and down across the country to the old Ehrenberg and Prescott stage road, and then by way of the Harqua Halas into the Mohave Valley, thence to Yuma, where the Colorado will be crossed and the road continued on direct to San Diego.

In one of its periodical diatribes against the Santa Fe Company a San Diego paper uses this remarkable illustration to prove discrimination in favor of Los Angeles: "A ticket may be bought at Chicago for San Diego at the same price at which one may be had from Chicago to Los Angeles. Thus, if the holder of such a ticket can be induced to stay in Los Angeles, instead of finishing his journey, the Santa Fe saves the cost of hauling him 120 miles further for nothing." Now can that
railroad saves by the passenger choosing to forego a 120-mile ride to which he became entitled without extra compensation?

Poisoned by Oysters.
Mrs. C. J. Allen, who lives on the corner of Wall and Third streets, dined on oysters put up in this city last evening, and in about ten minutes she was taken with convulsions and Dr. Bryant, the police surgeon, had to be called in.

The treasury estimates of expenses of the United States Government show that it costs about $1,100,000 a day.

The Chicago Tribune thinks that as Detroit is to have the Deep-Water Convention secured it should generously waive all claim to the Prohibition National Convention.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY has ordered the purchase of fifty election booths, to be used in voting by the Australian system at the next election. We shall soon have the school of instruction for voters in full blast.

FATHER TOLTON, the first and only colored Catholic priest in the United States, is to be reinforced. Charles C. Uncles, a quadron born in Baltimore, will celebrate his first mass in St. Xavier's Church, Baltimore, on Christmas morning.

A PRACTICAL illustration of the "am-I-my-brother's-keeper" practice of mankind is vividly afforded by an incident on the New York Elevated Railroad. Thousands of people during three days saw the starting eyes of a dead man at a window before anybody busied himself enough to enter the premises and investigate.

THE Cincinnati Times-Star observes that peace on the European plan has reached the Vale of Cashmere, and the Cashmere goat is scampering to avoid the sharp horns of John Bull and the affectionate hug of the Russian bear. The peace note of the European pulbit in Cashmere is remarkably like the crack of a Snider rifle.

THE New York Post figures out a remarkable redistribution of capital in this country as a result of this year's crops. While cotton returns $14,000,000 less than last year and pig iron $15,000,000 less, the wheat and corn crops will bring $500,000,000 more than in 1890. The West and Northwest are taking on a new importance in the financial world.

SAN FRANCISCO has a new charitable organization, known as the "Doctors' Daughters." The object of the association is to relieve the needs of poor people who are in distress on account of illness in the family. There are said to be already forty active workers in the society, assisted by 200 associate members, who are engaged in raising money to defray the expenses of the work.

Mrs. RUSSELL SAGE, who caught by the throat a crank and would be dynamiter that had invaded her residence and threatened to blow it up, and ran the said dynamiter out into the street, is deserving the congratulations and thanks of the country. Four out of five of those red-eyed fellows are cowards at heart, and a prompt application of nerve and muscle generally suffices to discomfit them.

A METHODIST minister in New York has astonished some people by proposing to convert the basements of churches into billiard rooms. It is urged by Christians of a practical turn that a game of billiards is not harmful except because of the associations which surround it. By placing tables where liquor and bad company would have no possible room the saloon would be deprived of one of its most powerful auxiliaries.

Mrs. CHARLES P. JOHNSON of Wyandotte, Kan., who, according to her own testimony, is in hourly communication with the spirit world, assigns Christmas day—the day after tomorrow—as the period for the grand wind-up of things terrestrial. She has a following of about 800 Adventists who firmly believe in her prediction, and who will be disappointed and possibly shocked when they see the sun rise next Saturday morning. People who predict cataclysms should set them further off; then their reign of importance would not be so short and inglorious.

THE Charleston, S. C., News and Courier (Dem.) lets in a good deal of light on the criticisms of Minister Egan which have been so generally indulged in by the Democratic and mugwump press. It says:

Minister Egan, the man who has made so much trouble in Chile, doubtless by order of the Government at Washington, is one of those nondescripts in this country, a Republican Irishman. Necessarily if he had settled in the United States in good faith he would have been like almost every other honest Irishman in the country, a Democrat.

If Minister Egan were a Democratic Irishman he would find defenders where he now finds detractors.

AFTER all the talk about France receding from restrictions on our products it seems that American pork is admitted at only three French ports of entry, and there only under the strongest guarantees as to its purity. "Suppose," says Once a Week, "Uncle Sam hereafter insisted that French champagne should not be made from hard cider; that fifteen-year-old Burgundy should not be from last year's vintage; that Phylloxera variator should be parigreened three times a week and kept off the French grapevines at all hazards, or we would none of her wine; what would our 'sister republic' do?" She would get over some of her squeamishness.

A TEN YEARS' SHOWING.

One Hundred Thousand Copies Can be Supplied.

The Decennial Times is a solid and a superb issue of 24 large pages. Citizens! spread the Anniversary Number abroad by hundreds and thousands of copies! It is the most interesting publication and the most effective missionary agent that can be sent out, by reason, particularly, of the ten years' showing and contrast presented in its columns. It is a distinctively Los Angeles publication, and makes the city and county luminous. It will be timely for months to come, but now is the best time to circulate the "Decennial," and 100,000 copies can be supplied for that purpose.

Orders sent to the counting-room—by mail, messenger or TIMES carriers—will be carefully filled.

Prices in lots: 5 copies, 25 cents; 10 copies, 50 cents; 20 copies, $1.00. Send your distant friend a copy and enlighten him about Los Angeles.

Edison on Life.

Under the caption, "What Is Life?" Thomas A. Edison has written a short article which is startling in its deductions. Coming from an authority less eminent it would be scouted as the manderings of a feather-headed theorist. But Thomas A. Edison in the field of practical mechanism is the greatest genius of the age. The world has come to have a good deal of respect for his original ideas. He has shown so well that he can "think in a straight line" in concrete matters that, when he enters the unwonted field of speculative philosophy, he is sure to be listened to with deference.

"When I was in Berlin," says the Wizard, "I met Du Bois Raymond, and, wagging the end of my finger, I said to him: 'What is that? What moves that finger?' He said he didn't know; that investigators have for twenty-five years been trying to find out. If anybody could tell him what wagged this finger the problem of life would be solved."

Before this enigma of wagging the finger the aggregated scientific knowledge of the age stands dumb. Physiologists tell us that it originates in the will; that, by some process of nature not understood, the first physical impression is on the gray matter of the brain; that the impulse is telegraphed along the nerves and imparted to the muscles, which finally move the finger. But what is the will? How does it originate? Is it embodied in thought, which itself has no embodiment? When summoned from the vast unknown how does this immaterial thing, the will, impress itself upon matter so as to start the purely physical impulse?

"It is my belief," says Edison, "that every atom of matter is intelligent, deriving energy from the primordial germ. The intelligence of man is, I take it, the sum of the intelligences of the atoms of which he is composed. Every atom has an intelligent power of selection and is always striving to get into harmonious relation with other atoms. The human body, I think, is maintained in its integrity by the intelligent persistence of its atoms, or rather by an agreement between the atoms so to persist. When the harmonious adjustment is destroyed the man dies and the atoms seek other relations."

This is certainly a new idea and one that is at variance with most of the hitherto accepted doctrines of the physical, mental and moral constitution of man. It makes of him a sort of republic of independent atoms with a central government of their joint constitution. It is the most radical ground that materialism has ever taken. The reflex of the thought is contained in the following: "I cannot regard the odor of decay but as the result of the efforts of the atoms to dissociate themselves; they want to get away and make new combinations. Man, therefore, may be regarded in some sort as a microcosm of atoms agreeing to constitute his life as long as order and discipline can be maintained. But, of course, there is dissatisfaction, rebellion and anarchy, leading eventually to death, and through death to new forms of life. For life I regard as indestructible; that is, if matter is indestructible."

And, after these innumerable constituents of the microcosm have dissociated themselves, each asserting its own identity, each pursuing its own indestructible life through varying combinations and dissolutions, what becomes of that spirit or soul which their joint intelligences once found? According to this philosophy there is no escape from Deva Khan—a great blank sea of existence which swallows up all minor existences and appropriates them to new uses and new individualities.

But Mr. Edison goes further. He at least has the courage to follow his logic to its ultimate conclusion: All matter lives, and everything that lives possesses intelligence. Consider growing corn, for example. An atom of oxygen comes flying through the air. It seeks combination with other atoms and goes to the corn, not by chance but by intention. It is seized by other atoms that need oxygen and is packed away in the corn where it can do its work. Now, carbon, hydrogen and oxygen enter into the composition of every organic substance in one form of arrangement or another. The formula C-H-O, in fact, is almost universal. Very well, then, why does a free atom of carbon select any particular one out of fifty thousand or more possible positions unless it wants to? I cannot see how we can deny intelligence to this act of volition on the part of the atom. To say that one atom has an affinity for another is simply to use a big word. The atom is conscious if man is conscious, is intelligent if man is intelligent, exercises will power if man does, in its own little way, all that man is. We are told by geologists that in the earliest periods no form of life could exist on the earth. How do they know that? A crystal is devoid of this vital principle, yet certain kinds of crystals invariably arrange themselves in a particular way to form a crystal. They did that in geological periods antedating the appearance of any form of life and have been doing it ever since in precisely the same way. Some crystals form in branches like a fern. Why is there not life in the growth of a crystal? Was the vital principle specially created at some period of the earth's history, or did it exist and control every atom of matter when the earth was molten? Cannot avoid the conclusion that all matter is composed of intelligent atoms, and that life and mind are merely synonyms for the aggregation of atomic intelligence.

Of course there is a source of energy. Nature is a perpetual motion machine, and perpetual motion implies a sustaining and impelling force.

But here we confront the insoluble mystery again. What is the great sustaining and impelling force? What is God? Mr. Edison has not helped to solve the mystery. He has only made it more complicated and inscrutable. It is this mystery of life which Tennyson has so beautifully typified in the lines—

"Flower in the crannied wall,
I pluck you out of the crannies;
Hold you here, root and all, in my hand,
Little flower—but if I could understand
What you are, root and all, and all in all,
I should know what God and man is."

Population of the State.

Subscribers to THE TIMES Premium Standard Atlas can now secure the valuable four-page Appendix which we have caused to be prepared, giving the population of California by counties, cities, towns and villages, according to the census of 1890. The sheet also contains a special exhibit of the growth of Los Angeles and Southern California in population and wealth during the past decade. The Appendix will be sent upon application, enclosing two stamps.

A PHILOSOPHER defines generosity as that quality that enables you to see good in the men you know are your superiors. It is quite rare.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE THEATERS.

LOS ANGELES THEATRE.—Daniel Sully and his capable company repeated The Millionaire at the Los Angeles Theatre last night to a fair house. The careful, painstaking acting of Mr. Sully was warmly applauded and the great strike scene and the driving of the golden spike at Rocky Gorge roused the appreciative audience to enthusiasm. Tonight will be given for the first time on and stage The Story Teller, a comedy by Edward Frieberger, a Chicago journalist. Los Angeles will have the pleasure of pronouncing judgment on a play which Mr. Sully thinks is to be as great a success as has been the one played last night. A large house will probably turn out to witness this dramatic baptism.

Mr. Sully has determined upon a novel idea to test the public feeling about his new play. Cards will be furnished those in attendance, on which will be printed the words "yes" and "no," which will be dropped into a box at the door as the audience leaves the theatre, and in this way everyone will have an opportunity of expressing his or her opinion, whether favorable or unfavorable, of the new production.

HAZARD'S PAVILION.—A very small audience greeted the Beebe-Barbour company at Hazard's Pavilion last night. The play, Black Diamonds, is a sensational drama, full of black-masked Mollie Maguires, an attempted blowing up of coal breakers, and other features to stir the blood, but it needed much striving to counteract the temperature of the big pavilion. The company, which was not an ambitious one, contains some good material and under other conditions would make a better showing. Tonight Joe, the Wolf.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.—The sale of seats for the engagement of Edward S. Willard, the great English actor, at the Grand Opera-house next week, begins at the box-office of this theatre tomorrow (Thursday) morning. Unless all the dramatic talent between the two oceans have gone daft this will be one of the greatest attractions yet played on the local stage. Los Angeles is particularly fortunate in being given an opportunity to see Mr. Willard in both The Midwesterner and Judah, San Francisco having been given only the former. Miss Marie Curran, a California actress and one of the beauties of the American stage, is Mr. Willard's chief support. Mr. A. M. Palmer's excellent company being in the subordinate roles.

Tariff Pictures.

[New York Press.]

The free trader's soul has been oppressed with woe at the thought of the higher prices the people would have to pay for carpets under the "iniquitous" McKinley tariff. Facts are the other way, of course. Take the grade of carpet known as five-frame Brussels, for instance. In November, 1890, the Lowell Manufacturing Company's prices for this per yard was $1.20.

In November, 1891, the "McKinley price" asked for the same article was $1.10.

"Most Complete, Most Comprehensive, Most Elaborate."

The Decennial Number of the Los Angeles Times, issued December 4, is one of the most complete, most comprehensive, most elaborate and, in our opinion, will be productive of more good to Southern California than its publishers ever hoped for. It is a publication that every citizen of Los Angeles should be proud of, and one which should be freely circulated throughout the Eastern States.

A "Progressive" Opinion.

[Pomona Progress.]

We inadvertently neglected last week to notice the splendid edition of the Los Angeles Times in celebration of its decennial anniversary. That was the greatest piece of journalistic enterprise in Southern California. The Times has always been a strong newspaper, but for months has gone far ahead of its former record. It spends a mint of money to get all the news, and its unequalled circulation in this region shows how the public appreciates such business energy and liberality.

Bic for Its Age.

The Los Angeles Times is the most vigorous 10-year-old youngster in the State.

Maj. McKinley's Illness.

[New York Press.]

The entire country hopes for the speedy recovery of Maj. McKinley, the Governor-elect of Ohio and champion of every citizen of Los Angeles should be proud of, and one which should be freely circulated throughout the Eastern States.

MENDOCINO, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The steamer West Coast, which arrived here from San Francisco December 16, and was loaded with railroad ties, was capsized off Point Arena yesterday and nine of the crew were drowned. The captain and three men were saved. The moorings of the vessel parted owing to a heavy sea and the stern lines fouled the propeller, rendering it useless. The captain ordered the sails raised, but before the vessel could turn the breakers threw her on the rocks. She will be a total loss. She was owned by H. Garthwaite of San Francisco, and was valued at $25,000.

The following is the list of drowned: First officer, Taulander; officer, G. Morrison, unmarried; chief engineer, James Morrison, married; second engineer, Edwards, married; steward, K. Edwin Wilson, married; all residents of San Francisco; cabin boy, James Simpson, 16 years of age, Australia; seamen, Archie Stewart, England; Alexander Overman, Finland; Bernard Anderson, Sweden.

AGAINST THE WIDOW.

Verdict in the Case of the Walker Estate in Arizona.

CASA GRANDE (Ariz.), Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The Walker case, which has been contested in the Superior Court during the last two weeks, was closed yesterday. The jury returned a majority verdict this morning for A. J. Doran, representing the Walker brothers and other heirs, as against the widow of John D. Walker. The contest was for the administration of the Walker estate, valued at over a quarter of a million of dollars. The heirs claimed that Walker was insane at the time of his marriage. He died at Napa on the 1st of September. Widow Walker's attorneys filed a motion for a new trial. They propose carrying the case to the highest courts. The case of Tomlinson against the Southern Pacific commenced at Florence today. Plaintiff demands from the Southern Pacific Company $5000 for the death of her husband last July. He having been run down by a freight train.

INSOLVENT FIRMS.

The Lusk and Strauss Failures at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The liabilities of Jacob Strauss, wholesale crockery dealer, whose business was attached by local creditors Saturday, foot up to $180,000. His assets are nominally the same.

Isidor Jacobs, president of the A. Lusk Canning Company, which was also attached, said today that the company's affairs are being straightened out, and that all indebtedness is more than two-thirds secured. A meeting of creditors will be held in a few days, at which a statement of the firm's standing will be made.

Affairs of the Automatic Can Company, of which Jacobs is also president, and on which attachments were also served, will be regulated largely by the decision of the creditors of the Lusk company.

MINERS MEET.

A Convention in San Francisco—The Placer Resolutions Indorsed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] In response to a call for a San Francisco county miners' convention issued by Charles M. Gale, of the Executive Committee of the Placer County Convention, about thirty persons interested in mining assembled this afternoon at the rooms of the Mining Bureau in Pioneer Hall. Charles G. Yale called the meeting to order. Robert McMurray was unanimously chosen chairman and William C. Ralston secretary.

A resolution was adopted indorsing those passed by the miners of Placer county in their convention of November 28. These resolutions deplore the conflict existing between the mining and agricultural interests of the State. They ask that Congress be memorialized to appropriate money to build dams to restrain mining debris, also for a modification of the severe State mining laws; that larger appropriations be made to improve the Sacramento, San Joaquin and Feather Rivers; that it is the wish of the convention that farmers and miners be equally protected and that millions of new money be put in circulation.

A discussion then arose as to the selection of sixty delegates to represent San Francisco in the Miners' State Convention to be held in this city January 20, 1892, and a committee was appointed to select them.

Teachers' Institute at Chico.

CHICO, Dec. 22.—The twenty-fifth annual session of the Butte County Teachers' Institute commenced yesterday, to continue four days. Gen. John Bidwell addressed the institute yesterday afternoon, welcoming the teachers. Last night Prof. Griggs, of Stanford University, delivered a lecture. Tonight the Chico teachers tender a reception to the Butte county teachers at the residence of Hon. T. H. Barnard. Over 100 teachers from all parts of the county are present. The weather is clear and cold.

Bail Given in a Perjury Case.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 22.—E. O. Miller of Visalia, who was indicted by the Sacramento grand jury, has given bail in the sum of $5000. His sureties are George E. Bates and F. A. Hyde in the sum of $2500 each. Miller is accused of subornation of perjury in connection with land cases.

Ab Doo Wanted in Oregon.

SALEM (Or.), Dec. 22.—Gov. Penneyer has issued a requisition on the Governor of California for a warrant of arrest for Ab Doo, who is wanted at Portland for the murder of a Japanese woman last spring. Ab Doo is at San Francisco.

A Blaze at Mendocino.

MENDOCINO, Dec. 22.—Fire started in the Donohue Opera-house at Fort Bragg this morning at 4 o'clock, totally destroying the Klumball Hotel, Ward's barber shop, St. John's jewelry store, Lizer &

Sternberg's store, the banking institution of H. A. Weller & Co., Ketchum's saloon and McMullen's saloon. The insurance cause and of the fire are unknown.

Destructive Fire at Monrovia.

MONROVIA, Dec. 22.—Fire this morning consumed four of the largest business buildings and their contents. Large & Wheeler's furniture store; A. Holdheim's harness shop and Mush-rush & Adams's meat market and carriage repository were totally destroyed. The Johnson Block was partly burned. The loss is heavy on all and there is but little insurance. The fire was caused by a defective flue in the harness shop.

Oregon's Wheat Crop.

PORTLAND (Or.), Dec. 22.—The Weather Bureau has collected statistics on crops of this State for the year 1891. The wheat reports represent 685,000 acres, which show an average yield of twenty-four bushels per acre, making a total yield of over 16,000,000 bushels.

THE GRAVES TRIAL.

The Prosecution Puts in All Its Evidence and Rests.

DENVER (Colo.), Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Barnaby Graves trial today Mr. Conrad was recalled and Judge Macdonald proceeded to cross-examine him. Conrad said he was badly disposed toward anyone who had taken Graves's part. He admitted making a statement accusing Col. Ballou of being interested in robbing Mrs. Barnaby and he declared that it was true. Since November he had some communication with Denver papers and had talked with reporters. Witness said he knew Detective Keith, who was employed by the defense. He denied that he had said certain things and then had told reporters that Keith had said them.

James L. Lindsay, an expert in handwriting, swore that it was his belief that the writing on Graves's letters and that on the inscription of the bottle of whisky were identical and written by the same person.

AN OLD MINER GONE.

Death of John Davies—Often Rich But Poor at Last.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] John Davies, one of the best known mining experts in the West, died in this city last night of pneumonia. Davies made and lost several fortunes in Colorado and California. He died almost penniless. He was the original owner of the Little Chief mine near Leadville, which he sold about ten years ago for $500,000. It was after ward sold again for $5,000,000 to one of his intimate friends. No one could deceive Davies on mines, but money slipped through his fingers as soon as he got it. Cards and speculation are said to have been the main causes of his losses. The story is still told in Colorado of a poker game in which he lost $30,000 one night and next night won it back and $20,000 more. He gave great sums to charitable objects. At one time he owned considerable property on the Yuba River in California.

Future Silver Coinage.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The conversion of trade dollar bullion into standard dollars was completed today. The coinage of standard silver dollars is therefore at an end unless a change is made in the policy of the Treasury Department through Congressional enactment or otherwise.

The Director of the Mint said this afternoon that while he was not authorized to speak of the future silver policy of the department he thought there was scarcely any doubt that the coinage of standard silver dollars would be continued at the San Francisco and Carson City mints in amounts sufficient to meet the necessities of the service. He estimated this at $100,000 a month for each mint.

A Madman on a Train.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 22.—A Rock Island train from the east came in today with a dangerous lunatic in the toilet room of one of the coaches. He refused to come out. Trainmaster Blair, with the assistance of the porter, undertook to take him out, whereupon he pulled a knife, which he sheathed in Blair's leg. Blair then concluded to lock the door of the private room and leave him alone. Two policemen succeeded in securing him later. He gave the name of Thomas F. Herrington, a laborer of San Francisco, who is returning home from a visit to Boston.

The Deadly Electric Wire.

ALBANY (Ind.), Dec. 22.—About noon today Louis Wagner was employed in the power-house of the electric street railway, repairing a wire, when his ladder slipped, throwing him to the ground. In falling a charged wire struck Wagner on the wrist, killing him instantly. The other end struck another employe, named Marcus Ruthenburg, who was so badly shocked that he cannot recover.

Object to Giving Bonds.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 22.—The order to be issued by General Manager Morrill, of the St. Louis and San Francisco road, to the effect that conductors will on and after January 1 have to give $500 bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, is meeting with strenuous opposition and there are fears of trouble ensuing.

Resisting Payment of Taxes.

OMAHA (Nebr.), Dec. 22.—The Union Pacific this morning obtained a temporary injunction restraining the city of Omaha from collecting taxes on the property of the road. The petition alleges that the property is already returned for assessment to the State Auditor and that collection of taxes by the city will be a double assessment.

End of a Desperado.

ULTIMA TRULLE (Ark.), Dec. 22.—Will Lancaster was shot and killed late last night by a constable, who was attempting to arrest him. Lancaster was a desperate criminal and had been a fugitive from justice for many years.

Two Bankers Arrested.

GREENSBURG (Pa.), Dec. 22.—Peter S. Poole and his son, of the defunct banking firm, were arrested tonight on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by one of the depositors.

Maj. McKinley Getting Well.

CANTON (O.), Dec. 22.—Maj. McKinley has so far recovered as to be able to give some attention to business again. He will immediately begin work on his inaugural address.

Wait Whitman Weakens.

CAMDEN (N. J.), Dec. 22.—Wait Whitman's condition remains unchanged today, except probably that he may be slightly weaker.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

A Bill for a Public Building in Los Angeles.

Stephen B. Elkins Confirmed as Secretary of War.

A Loyal Legion Resolution Presented to the Senate.

Henry V. Van Dusen Appointed Postmaster of Los Angeles—Senate and House to Adjourn Today Until the 5th Prox.

By Telegraph to the Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] In the Senate today Stanford introduced his bill of the last session appropriating $950,000 for the extension of the executive mansion in accordance with plans prepared by Mrs. Harrison. He also introduced bills for the erection of public buildings at Fresno, Alameda, San Diego, Oakland and Los Angeles, Cal., and Ogden, Utah; also his bills of last session appropriating $1,000,000 for the establishment of a gun factory on the Pacific Coast, and to provide the Government with means sufficient to supply the national want of a sound circulating medium.

Senator Chandler today introduced a bill to amend the act to regulate the carriage of passengers at sea; to provide that in future it shall be unlawful for any steamship company to bring passengers from any foreign country unless suitable accommodations for the comfort of the passengers are provided.

FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate—Among the papers presented and referred were a resolution of the military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, adopted at St. Paul, urging the completion at the earliest moment practicable of a "navy sufficient in ships and armament to command and enforce the respect due to the flag of the Nation the world over."

A number of bills of only local importance were introduced. A communication from the Court of Claims transmitting awards in certain French spoliation claims cases was presented and referred to the Committee on Claims.

Mr. Stanford and his colleague, Mr. Felton, took the oath of office as Senators. The following bills were introduced: To provide the Government with means sufficient to supply the want of a sound circulating medium; for the extension of the executive mansion. The House concurrent resolutions for the payment of December salaries to employees of Congress on the 24th inst., and for a holiday recess from tomorrow until Tuesday, January 5, were presented and concurred in and then after a short executive session, as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Representative Ford, the Senate at 1:10 adjourned until tomorrow.

CONFIRMED.

The Nominations of Elkins and Others Pass the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—[By the Associated Press.] The Senate in executive session today confirmed the nomination of S. B. Elkins to be Secretary of War. Mr. Elkins, who is in New York city, was informed of his confirmation by the Senate this afternoon by a telegram from the President. As he had arranged to spend the Christmas holidays with his family at Elkins, W. Va., it is supposed that he will not assume his new duties until New Year's day or soon after.

Other confirmations were as follows: Enos H. Nebeker, of Indiana, United States Treasurer; J. C. Quinn, Collector of Internal Revenue, First District of California; W. E. Simonds of Connecticut, Commissioner of Patents. All military nominations, 262 in number, received up to the present date were also confirmed. Judicial nominations were not considered, as they have not yet received action by the Committee on Judiciary.

Postmasters were confirmed as follows: Oregon—J. S. Howard

A LINER BURNED AT SEA.

The Guion Steamer Abyssinia Destroyed by Fire.

Davitt's Waterford Campaign Closes with Riotous Scenes.

The Clerical Party in Germany Agitating the School Question.

Many Lives Lost in Italy During a Great Snow Storm—A British Vessel Supposed to Have Been Lost at Sea.

By Telegram to The Times.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The steamship Abyssinia, of the Guion line, which sailed from New York December 13, was burned at sea. She carried eighteen cabin and thirty-eight steerage passengers and a crew of eighty men. All on board were saved. The Abyssinia, which was valued at $200,000, carried a valuable cargo of merchandise. She was an iron, bark-rigged, screw steamer of 2651 tons gross and was built originally for the Cunard line. For the past five years she has been running between Vancouver, B. C., and Hong Kong as one of the Canadian Pacific line steamers, and this was her first regular trip for the Guion line since then. She arrived in this port last September from Hong Kong with a cargo of tea.

SOUTHAMPTON, Dec. 22.—The North German Lloyd steamer Spree, with the passengers and crew of the burned steamer Abyssinia on board, arrived to-night. It appears that the passengers aboard the Abyssinia first heard of the fire on Friday afternoon. The steamer was then on fire at both ends. Three hours afterwards the steamer Spree was sighted. She immediately sent out boats to the rescue, and all on board were safely transferred with the exception of one seaman who jumped overboard and was drowned.

As there was not the slightest chance of saving the Abyssinia, she was abandoned and the Spree proceeded on her voyage. The Spree's captain has been given a testimonial by the rescued passengers.

The fire is attributed to spontaneous combustion in the cargo of cotton. The Abyssinia was an iron boat with an average speed of thirteen knots an hour. The value of the cargo is estimated at $750,000.

GERMANY'S SCHOOL QUESTION.

The Center Party Will Try to Undo the Legislation of 1878.

BERLIN, Dec. 22.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] A Catholic prelate deeply interested in the subject of public education has given a review of the church policy toward state schools and the present condition of the school question in the principal countries of Europe. In it he says: "The German Center, favored by the present exceptional parliamentary situation, is on the point of resuming, both in the Reichstag and press, its campaign in behalf of the rights of the church." Touching education in the primary schools; he says that since Bismarck's resignation a great reconciliation has been brought about between Catholicism and the government and the Emperor. The Center is now resolved to give ardent support to Emperor William's social reforms and his general policy, which is commonly designated as "the new course." Aided by this advantage and seconded by the episcopate of the entire country, the Center deputies are going to make an effort to secure for the church wider influence in public schools. This programme of the deputies and bishops does not propose that the church shall have a free school over which the state is to have no rights, but it simply asks for the church the restoration of the position held by her in the public schools prior to 1878.

DAVITT'S CAMPAIGN.

Preliminary Skirmishing Before the Waterford Election.

DUBLIN, Dec. 22.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Several prominent members are at Waterford working energetically for the election of their candidate tomorrow. Feeling runs high, and it will be fortunate if somebody is not hurt before the polls close. Dalton, the Parnellite, today met David Sheehy, who is working for Michael Davitt, and violently abused him. Sheehy retaliated, whereupon a crowd of Parnellites set upon him, and the police had to conduct him to a place of safety. Messrs. Flynn and Condon were later in the day set upon by a mob of Parnellites and had a hard time to get away, the mob pursuing them to the very doors of the McCarthyite committee.

Supposed to Have Gone Down.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—A boat marked "Cavalier" and wrecked were picked up off Scilly Islands and it is believed that the steamer Cavalier, which left Gibraltar December 8 for Falmouth, is lost. The British steamer Indian Prince reports that December 13, when sixteen miles from Bishop Rock, she passed an abandoned English steamer tallying exactly with the Cavalier's description. The general belief is that the latter steamer was abandoned and everybody lost.

A Libel Suit Abandoned.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Counsel for the plaintiff in the action for libel brought by the wife of Capt. Osborne against the wife of Maj. Hargrave today announced to the court that, acting under instructions from Capt. Osborne, they withdrew. Mrs. Osborne now admits that she stole jewelry from Mrs. Hargrave and sold it.

Many Lives Lost by a Storm.

ROME, Dec. 22.—While 200 laborers were returning from work on the Sulmona and Isernia Railroad, they were overtaken by a terrible snowstorm. Many were suffocated in drifts and others were frozen. Fifteen bodies have thus far been recovered. Ten are still missing.

Germany's Grain Duties.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: "It is reported that at a private meeting of Conservatives the announcement was made on behalf of Chancellor Caprivi that he would reduce duties on grain below 8½ marks."

French Duties on Petroleum.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—The Chamber of Deputies today by a vote of 254 to 247 rejected the Senate's proposal to place a duty of 124 on refined petroleum. The Chamber subsequently adopted a measure imposing a duty of 123 on refined petroleum.

Ministerial Changes.

BUCHAREST, Dec. 22.—The Roumanian Ministry has resigned because of the defeat of a government measure in Parliament.

VIENNA, Dec. 22.—Count Gandola Keunburg has accepted a seat in Prime Minister Taaffe's cabinet.

French Troubles in Madagascar.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Telegrams from Madagascar state that the relations between the French government and the Malagasy government growing out of questions which shall grant exequaturs to foreign representatives in Madagascar have, after a long period of tension been ruptured altogether. No one can foretell what the outcome of the dispute will be, both powers seemingly being determined not to make any concessions and the result is that the commerce of the country is at a standstill.

Had Enough of Brazil.

ODESSA, Dec. 22.—A party of Polish peasants who some time ago emigrated to Brazil in the belief that their condition would be greatly improved have returned in a destitute condition. They found it impossible to gain a livelihood in Brazil.

Treaties Prolonged.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—After considerable debate in the Chamber of Deputies the government bill to prolong for a year the treaties existing between France and other countries was adopted.

Death of a French Bishop.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—Rt. Rev. Charles Emile Freppel, bishop of Angers, a well-known clerical member of the Chamber of Deputies, died today.

Anti-slavery Convention Ratified.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—The Chamber of Deputies today without debate ratified the Brussels anti-slavery convention.

AGGRESSIVE RUSSIA.

The Situation on the Pamir Frontier Threatening.

China Willing to Cede Formosa to England as the Price of Her Aid Against the Northern Hordes.

By Telegram to The Times.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Chronicle's correspondent at Shanghai telegraphs: "Although Great Britain is represented on the Yang-tse-kiang, the admiral of the fleet has been for several weeks cruising in the vicinity of Vladivostok and Corea and there is little doubt that he is acting in accordance with instructions from the home government. These operations practically amount to a reconnaissance and are closely connected with the Russian advance in Pamir."

"Russia's movements in Asia have undoubtedly changed Great Britain's intention to join the naval demonstration in Chinese waters. There are twenty American and European men-of-war here. They will seize and occupy Shanghai and Woosung and place officers in charge of the Chinese customs. It is the universal opinion that the crisis is only suspended. It is believed China is willing to cede Formosa in exchange for England's support against Russia. Formosa is rich in minerals."

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "The Russian reserves have received sealed instructions, which are not to be opened until a certain signal is given from headquarters. The greatest activity prevails in all Russian armament works and dock yards."

The New Quebec Cabinet.

QUEBEC, Dec. 22.—The new cabinet appointed to succeed the Mercier administration is composed as follows: C. B. Deboncherville, Premier; T. C. Cosgrain, Attorney-General; S. J. Hall, Treasurer; E. J. Flynn, Commissioner Crown Lands; G. A. Nantel, Commissioner of Public Works; Louis Baubien, Commissioner of Agriculture; L. P. Pelletier, Provincial Secretary; L. R. Mason, L. O. Taillon and J. Mackintosh, ministers without portfolios.

New Aspirants for Plumb's Place.

TOPEKA (Kan.), Dec. 22.—Gov. Humphrey indignantly denies the rumor that he will resign and have the lieutenant-governor appoint him Senator to succeed Mr. Plumb. In addition to those named last night, ex-Gov. Crawford, Joseph W. Ady, United States District Attorney, and Maj. Hudson, editor of the Topeka Capital, are mentioned as candidates for the vacancy. Gov. Humphrey says he is in no haste to make the appointment.

A Great Storm Up North.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Dec. 22.—A heavy wind and rain storm prevailed today on the Sound. Rain fell in torrents for several hours, and streams rose rapidly. Telegraph wires were prostrated for a time, but the wires have recovered before midnight. No serious damage has been reported to shipping, but it is feared a number of vessels have been lost on the coast.

Flashes from Fresno.

FRESNO, Dec. 22.—United States patents were filed here today granting the Southern Pacific 366,988 acres of land in accordance with certain acts of Congress of 1866 and 1870.

Another solid railroad of twenty cars of rails left for New York today. Each car contained 20,000 pounds, or 400,000 pounds in all.

Timothy Hopkins Asks a Delay.

SALEM (Mass.), Dec. 22.—Counsel for Timothy Hopkins filed a motion for delay in the issuance of a commission to take the depositions of Newman and other prominent witnesses in the Seales case. A delay was asked for several days on account of the absence of Timothy Hopkins from the State.

What to Feed Poultry.

[R. T. Lake in Pacific Coast Fancier.] Small seeds.—The tiny seeds, such as millet, rape, mustard and the finer particles of cracked corn, will, if scattered among leaves and chaff, give yarded fowls just the exercise needed.

Cooked bones.—Raw green bones cut fine in a bone-cutter are, as we stated in last month's Fancier's Monthly, fine food for fowls, but if the fine-cut bones are baked and then fed to the fowls the nutritive value of the food is greatly increased.

Liver pills.—Common liver pills are just as good for fowls that have the liver complaint as for human beings thus affected. Symptoms of liver disease in fowls: Pale comb, sluggish movements, short breath and seeming fatness, but really "all liver," which frequently will be found enlarged to an enormous size. Give one pill a day in soft food.

FAMINE AND THE KNOT.

Twenty Million Russian Peasants Starving.

Terrible Punishment Inflicted on Wretches Who Pilfer.

Knaveish Acts of Those Who Disperse the Relief Funds.

The Imperial Family Giving Generously to the Sufferers—Sad Scenes in the Famine Provinces—Aid Needed from America.

By Telegram to The Times.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 22.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The czar has sent Col. Wendrich to Postoff invested with absolute powers to so organize railway traffic as to effect distribution of corn. The Carevitch has just donated 50,000 roubles to the famine fund, while the Grand Dukes George, Alexander and Sergius each contributed 40,000 roubles. Money for relief purposes is also flowing in freely from other sources.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The charge d'affaires of the Russian legation, replying to a letter asking for information as to the famine in Russia and whether a movement for help is a necessity, said that in twelve provinces over 20,000,000 people were starving and that any assistance given would be much appreciated.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The Telegraph's correspondent at St. Petersburg says: "There has been an immense falling off in the government revenues. From the famine-stricken provinces reports of merciless repression and outlaws are continually received. The civil authorities do not depend upon themselves alone to put down lawless acts, but upon the mere pretext summon the military, evidently with the intention of overawing the people. Three men convicted of robbery at Simbirsk were condemned to undergo punishment with the knot. The poor wretches, who had probably stolen only to keep alive, died under the lash. A man detected stealing a few turnips was sentenced to penal servitude for life."

"While army officers and many societies have given up many of their usual banquets, etc., devoting the money usually so spent to the relief of the famine sufferers, their distress has not touched the hearts of many of the richest merchants of St. Petersburg. They refuse to subscribe anything for the relief of their suffering countrymen. An illustration of the apathy which appeals have been received is the fact that the collection boxes placed about the Corn Exchange were found when removed to be filled with bits of tin and pieces of paper. In numerous cases dealers after receiving exorbitant prices for grain sent to the famine-stricken provinces bags the contents of which proved to be mostly grass, sand and bran. Corruption is widespread among officeholders, and they are little affected by the scenes of distress, sickness and death visible on every hand. Many town officials refused to enroll starving peasants on the relief list unless they first pay a bribe at the rate of 10 copecks for every pound of rye given. Petitions to the provincial assemblies and government asking that drams shops be closed and the sale of vodka, the national drink, be forbidden, have availed nothing."

An Appeal to Iowans.

DES MOINES, Dec. 22.—Gov. Boies today issued a proclamation calling attention to the famine in Russia, and asking for contributions from the people.

PRESSURE FOR PLACE.

There are Candidates of Recommendations.

It is improbable that since the days of Gen. Grant at the White House there has ever been as much pressure brought as now for appointments, says a Washington special to the Cincinnati Times-Star. In the first place President Harrison has more prominent places to give within the next few days than has fallen to the lot of any President since the history of the country. In the second place there never has been so much good material and willing as now.

A judicial position for life worth $5000 or $6000 a year is an uncommon plum. A place on the Interstate Commerce Commission at $7500 a year for a period of six years is something to be longed for by almost any lawyer. The missions to China or Japan and a lot of good places in the Territories, besides a life place on the Court of Claims at $5000 a year, have called out the most active efforts of men who are willing to serve Uncle Sam. It is said that there are enough papers on file for the twenty or thirty prominent positions which the President will soon fill to load a two-horse wagon. These are from the most eminent lawyers, business men and politicians in the country. They are not only the wishes of the persons who signed them, but the anticipations of a host of influence.

President Harrison, better than most of his predecessors, has been able to handle office-seekers with satisfactory skill. When he leaves the White House it cannot be said that he has thrown out false hopes or misled or misrepresented. He has been ever ready to say why he could not make appointments, but has been careful to avoid creating the impression that he intended to make an appointment, even though he felt morally certain that he would do it.

It has been a very difficult matter for those who have called on the President singly or in numbers to arrive at any conclusion as to what was occupying his mind or what he intended to do. Some who are adepts in character reading and who are familiar with President Harrison have essayed to arrive at conclusions in their own minds that he would do this thing or fail to do that. The process by which these imaginary or real conclusions have been reached is interesting. It is said that President Harrison can never be caught off his guard, and that he never makes a careless observation, even playfully. Those who have tried to reconcile their own minds as to what he would or would not do have taken their conclusions from the pleasant or unpleasant or stoical expression upon the face of the President at the time they talked to him about appointments and the questions he has asked in reference

TOYS

At one-half the marked price. Today and tomorrow are the last days for the toy department. Today additional room will be given up to the display of dolls. More room will be given to the handkerchief display and an extra share for the display of pocket-books, card cases, writing tablets and leather portfolios. A few very choice things in card cases, combination card cases and pocket-books, ranging in price from 25 cents up to $6. A few choice fans at very low prices. Feather, gauze and fine hand-painted fans; doll heads in all sizes; hair pins, jewelry, glove stretchers, glove buttoners, fine towels, napkins, table linens, table covers, piano and stand covers.

The dress goods department is making a great showing of medium-priced dress patterns ranging in prices: $3, $3.50, $4, $4.50, $5, $6, $8 and $10. The goods are all very cheap at the price. Feather boas, feather collars, fur boas and fur collars and a few very choice fur sets. Real mink capes. Mink is one of the fashionable furs of the season, and as we only have a very few mink capes left it would be well to make an early call. A large lot of hand-knit skirts for ladies and children. Felt, silk, pongee, alpaca and muslin made skirts; Baby hoods, Crochet sacques, booties and mittens; all useful and desirable for Christmas presents. A few real choice dolls, real bisque. Hand satchels, small hand valises, hand bags. Gents' ties 19c, worth 50c and 75c. Real lace handkerchiefs, real lace scarfs. A large lot of shawls. Boys' clothing at one-half the marked price. A big lot of new shoes at $1.50, $2 and $2.50. They are very cheap. We will have something to say about Royal Worcester Corsets in a few days.

MR. VAN OSS IS MISSING.

Disappearance of a Nadeau Hotel Guest.

He Left a Week Ago to Make a Trip to Barstow.

Since Which Time Nothing Has Been Heard of Him.

All of His Baggage Left in His Room at the Hotel—His Friends Very Un"easy" About Him—A Peculiar Case.

A well-dressed man who registered at the Nadeau Hotel a few weeks ago, under the name of Van Oss, and cut quite a swell among local railroad men and would-be presidents of transcontinental roads that have not yet been built, has mysteriously disappeared, and his friends are considerably worried about him.

He is an educated man, and all who talked to him were soon convinced that he is well posted in Eastern railroad matters, and is closely connected with some of the highest railroad men in the United States. He had letters of introduction from a number of them, and must have been out here on important business, for every mail brought him letters from main offices all over the country. But what his business was no one seems to know, for he either swore them to secrecy or he gave them no direct information.

He was here a couple of weeks and spent considerable of his time running out on the various local lines, and seemed to be making a close inspection of the roads and rolling stock.

A week ago yesterday he came down from his room early in the morning and informed the hotel clerk that he was going to Barstow, but would return in the evening.

"You don't intend to return this evening, do you?" asked the clerk in astonishment.

"Yes, certainly," replied Mr. Oss. This reply staggered the clerk, for he knew that it would be impossible for anyone to go to Barstow and back the same day. He could not understand how a man so well posted in railroad affairs should make such a blunder.

"Don't you know that you cannot return from Barstow before tomorrow evening?"

"Is that so? Well, I will come back tomorrow evening, then," coolly replied the railroad man, and he took a hack for the depot.

He did not even take a hand-grip and left all his baggage and traps in his rooms. He left a lot of fine clothes and valuable papers, and, as a budget of letters and telegrams have reached the hotel daily for him since he left, it is evident that his correspondents still believe he is in Los Angeles.

As near as can be learned by the hotel people and friends here, he did not intend to leave the city, for he had plenty of money and the hotel people were so confident that he was not a fraud that he could have taken his baggage with him and his bill would not have been presented to him.

If he really went to Barstow no trace of him can be had, and there is nothing to show that he took any other route out of the city. Mr. Chase, of the Nadeau, was seen yesterday by a Times reporter and stated that he is completely puzzled.

"I hardly know what to say, but I am confident that he has met with foul play, for there is no reason, so far as I know, for his sudden disappearance. I think steps of some kind should be taken to find him."

The matter has been reported to the police and some of the best detectives on the force have been detailed to look Mr. Van Oss up.

LOCAL SHYLOCKS.

Something About Pawnbrokers and Vague Laws Regulating Them.

How They Evade Them in Overcharging and in General Business—The Chinese, Too, Have Their "Uncles."

There are sixty-eight pawnbrokers in Los Angeles, or rather those who receive pledges and buy and sell second-hand goods. Of this number twelve are regular "uncles," who hang upon the outward wall the sign of the three brass balls. These pay to the city $10 per month license tax. There are four Chinese pawnbrokers who pay the same license, and loan sums of money to their shaven-headed brethren on everything from a highbinder's blunderbuss to a silk coat or a pound of opium. There are ten others who deal in second-hand clothing, five who purchase and sell second-hand books, three who deal in second-hand buggies and harness. The other thirty-four have no specialty, but deal in any and everything that comes along.

These smaller broker shops pay a license in proportion to the amount of business they transact. On less than $500 worth of business per month they pay $1; on not more than $2000, they pay $2; on $5000 they pay $5; and on $10,000 they pay $10 per month. They are classed as dealers and are not supposed to lend money on articles, but to purchase and then sell. But they can, and no doubt many of them do, evade the law by buying with the tacit understanding that the same article shall be repurchased at a stipulated sum within a prescribed time. They thus compete with merchants in every branch of trade.

Pawnbrokers have been known to evade the law in the same way, also by charging a greater rate of interest than that allowed by law. A pawnshop that loans money on second-hand clothing can thus conduct a clothing store in connection and under the same license.

It is very difficult to catch these shrewd fellows at that sharp practice. In Chicago, for instance, every pawnbroker in the city must send to the superintendent of police at noon, each day, a complete list of the articles taken in pledge by him during the preceding twenty-four hours, together with the name of the pledger and the time for which the articles were pledged.

This greatly assists the police in tracing stolen property. Two detective officers have special charge of the pawnbrokers' shops, who daily and nightly visit the shops and note the most frequent patrons of these places, some of which are merely "fences" for stolen property. But, no doubt, even the Chicago system could be improved upon. A person offering a valuable pledge should be identified by one or two persons who are known to the pawnbroker—just as a man is identified at a bank before he can get a check cashed. A cashier is made responsible for mistakes, and a pawnbroker should know that the man whom he is dealing with owns the property he pledges. This would greatly reduce crime in that line; perhaps reduce the number of pawnbrokers' offices. Under present regulations a man can give a fictitious name and address, and there are very few who give their proper address. But if identification, together with a description of the person, were required, there would be no trouble in tracing a stolen article or convicting the thief.

"There are four pawnbrokers' shops in the Chinese quarter," said an official. "They pay the same license and are subject to the same restrictions as are those in the Caucasian quarter, and they evade the laws in about the same manner. While they are restricted to 4 per cent. a month for loans, they also charge as much as they can get. For instance: A Chinese has gone broke playing tan. He will rush out to a shop and pawn his silk coat at $5, which would be 20 cents interest. But as he wishes the money very badly he is charged 50 cents. This is in a nature of a private contract to purchase the coat at $5.50. And, again, a highbinder gets broke and wishes to pawn his knife or pistol, worth perhaps only $2. He will agree to repurchase the article at an advance of 25 per cent., or a 'friend' hangs up his opium pipe for $1, or even 50 cents. The pawnbroker will not make out a ticket for 4 cents, so the needy customer is charged three or four times the legal rates. While they are required to keep books in English for our inspection, these fellows succeed in evading the laws, just like the Caucasian 'uncles.'"

..OF..

Christmas Presents!

TWO weeks ago the great Gift Carnival began its great career. It has been an enthusiastic success every day since.

Huge crowds have taxed the seating capacity of the store and the labor of the salesmen. Again and again has the great toy stands been depleted and replenished, but the quantities we have purchased seem inexhaustible. It looks very much as though there would be a large quantity remaining after the holidays.

We don't want them, we want to give them away. So from today we will be still more liberal and will give away double the quantity we have been giving away with each purchase.

No lottery, no drawing, no game of chance; a present with every purchase. All goods are marked in plain figures and one price only.

Day after day our patrons have wondered how we could give away such valuable presents free. Delighted customers leave our establishment loaded with presents and gratification shown on every line of their countenances. Our gift sale has been, it is, a great success. It shall be greater.

Double the Quantity of Presents From Today

—ON—

Gents' embroidered slippers, nothing nicer for a Christmas present, $1, and double the quantity of presents.

Gents' plush chenille embroidered slippers, $1.50, and double the quantity of presents.

Several Important Y. M. C. A. Meetings Held.

Mr. Monroe Succeeds Mr. Strong as President.

An Exciting Runaway on Colorado Street Yesterday Afternoon.

Various Items of Local Interest—People Coming and Going—The News of the City Briefly Summed Up—Notes and Personalities.

The annual business meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association met in the reading-room for the purpose of electing a board of directors. A. F. M. Strong, president of the association, and most of the members of the board have served for three years, and have done efficient and faithful work during the period when the financial and business depression incident to Pomona's boom caused hard times and difficulties which only wise thought and good business management could successfully overcome. The association regrets much that Mr. Strong cannot fill the position of president another year. His many other duties and the probability of being away from the city much of the time prevent his acceptance of the office for another year. General Secretary George Taylor, in his remarks, spoke of the pleasant relations between himself and the president and members of the board. He closed his remarks by calling for an expression of the appreciation which the association held for the services of the retiring president and members of the board, which was responded to heartily by all rising. Mr. Strong responded in a few appropriate remarks, and then the business of the association was taken up.

The reports of the various working committees were highly interesting, and showed a great amount of work done. Prominent among these was the work of the visitation committee and care of sick young men. The annual meeting of the board of directors was held Monday afternoon. The following persons compose the officers and board for the year: Prof. Will S. Monroe, president; Dr. P. M. Strong, vice president; J. M. Green, treasurer; Milford Fish, Dr. J. R. Townsend, A. J. Wallace, E. A. Walker, and George Taylor, general secretary and clerk of the board. The report of the treasurer, P. M. Green, showed the total receipts for the year, $923.81, the total expenditures $808.29, and the association free of debt to date. The annual report of the general secretary, giving the actual statistics of the work done through the various committees, the attendance at the reading-room, the Sunday school, and the various other departments, showed that the managers and committees of the association had not been indifferent to the wants of others. From the report it was seen that the association is certainly in a healthy condition and in fine shape to do the work which a new year opens up before it.

In the selection of Prof. Monroe as president the association has made a wise choice and has for its leader a thoughtful, Christian, cultured gentleman, one whose position as superintendent of Pasadena schools makes him well known, not only here but in all parts of our State. This will be helpful to the association, from the fact that the annual State convention, which will meet here in October, will bring him in contact with business men and prominent association workers from all parts of the State, where he has been during his lecture course and institute work.

The Ladies' Central Committee of the association met on Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. A. F. M. Strong, to complete the arrangements for the annual reception to be given on New Year's day. The ladies have planned, with the aid of a decorating committee, to make this a pleasant affair. The refreshments and music of the committee, with other invited ladies, will receive young men on New Year's day from 2 to 4 o'clock for a pleasant social time. Refreshments will be served and an enjoyable time is promised to all who will attend. This reception will be strictly confined to men, young or old, and especially to those who are strangers. In the evening a musical and literary entertainment will be given. An interesting programme is being prepared of vocal, instrumental and orchestral music and recitations. The entertainment will be free to all, both ladies and gentlemen, all who have attended other association New Year's entertainments will need no urging to be present.

Exciting Runaway. Ritzman's express team created considerable excitement yesterday afternoon by indulging in an exciting race. The team had been backed up against the Santa Fé baggage platform for the 4:06 o'clock train. The arrival of the train frightened the horses and they started up Raymond avenue at a lively gallop, having broken off the tongue of the wagon by colliding with an outhouse. When Colorado street was reached the span of nerving horses turned westward, and although the street was thronged with vehicles, but one was injured, that belonging to Mr. Bergen, which suffered the loss of a wheel. At Fair Oaks avenue the horses turned back and in front of Dr. Rosenberg's store one of the horses collided with a telegraph pole, breaking several ribs and the shoulder bone. At last accounts the horse was lying on the street and its death was hourly expected. It was extremely fortunate that the event did not have a more fatal result, as it occurred at a time when Colorado street was crowded with vehicles of almost every description.

Merry Masons. Pasadena Lodge, F. and A. M., held a meeting of unusual interest on Monday evening. The third degree was conferred upon several candidates, adding extra interest to the occasion. B. O. Schellert presided gracefully, and in a few brief remarks made pleasing reference to the success attending the lodge during the past year. A. H. Conger responded in behalf of the chapter in eloquent terms, and F. L. Jones represented the commandery in a highly satisfactory manner. There were numerous other speakers, and the pleasure of the evening was much enhanced by a bountiful supply of refreshments, served under the efficient direction of Pete Steil. The annual installation will take place on Monday next.

BREVITIES. The Salvation Army is still in it. The days will now begin to lengthen. Light frosts are in order these nights. The real estate market continues brisk. A. S. Cates went to Riverside yesterday. W. R. Mackintosh was in town yesterday. A. M. Byram is confined to his house by illness. Throop University closes today for the holidays.

Mrs. Seymour Locke is out again, after a severe illness. The grip still exists in town to an unpleasant extent. An informal hop will be held at the Raymond this evening.

H. I. Stewart, of the First National bank, is quite ill with the grip. There is quite a rivalry in the peanut and popcorn business at present. Miss Carter left on Monday for Chicago, where she will spend the winter. A heavy demand is being made for the days on the resources of the city stables. The members of the Athletic Club are highly antagonistic to having it rain on Friday.

All of the schools have closed for the holidays, and the scholars are correspondingly happy. The local telegraph and telephone operators are kept exceptionally busy at this season of the year. Morning prayer will be held on Christmas morning at the Church of the Angels, Gar-vanza, followed by a celebration of the holy communion. Rev. J. R. de Wolfe, Cowie will officiate.

The weather is delightful at present. It is to be hoped that it will continue the same until Saturday.

Col. William G. Schreiber and staff are expected to be present tonight at Co. B's banquet at the Palomar.

If the author of the much-discussed Examiner article happened in town just now he would meet a sad fate.

Arthur Ross is convalescing from an attack of illness that has confined him to the house for some days past.

An interesting time will be enjoyed by the Hotel Green guests tomorrow evening appropriate to Christmas highly exciting.

Supt. Monroe entertained Miss Thompson and several other teachers at dinner Monday evening at Hotel Green.

The lecture delivered Monday evening at Hotel Green by Miss Howison on "Robert Burns" is highly spoken of by those present.

A Pasadenaian has invested some money in a weekly newspaper which is to be published at Whittier, the first number to appear early next year.

The Christmas buyers are more numerous than ever. Nearly all of the stores keep open quite late for the accommodation of their many customers.

A meeting of John F. Godfrey Corps, G. A. R., is called for this afternoon for inspection by Mrs. Sterling of Los Angeles. A full attendance is requested.

It is proposed to revive interest in the Pasadena Art Loan exhibitions this winter by a series of exhibitions, the first of which is announced to take place on January 21.

At the reception tendered Co. B on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Campbell numerous games were indulged in, which proved the source of much merriment to all present.

The funeral of Mrs. Fraser, which took place yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. The deceased was held in high favor by a large circle of acquaintances and personal friends.

The track which will be used for the Tournament of Roses on New Year's day is almost completed. It will prove to be a fine course, and the different events will without doubt prove highly exciting.

Mrs. A. C. Gilmore, Mrs. Gilmore and Mrs. A. P. Lull of Chambersburg, Pa., and Mrs. Agard of Toland, Ct., arrived in Los Angeles last night over the Southern Pacific. They will spend the winter in Pasadena.

News reached here yesterday of a big fire at Monrovia. According to the report the blaze started at 1 o'clock yesterday morning and destroyed a large shop, a large furniture store and Holcomb's harness shop were destroyed.

Late arrivals at Hotel Green include the following: W. W. Jones and wife, Mrs. Susie M. Lyons, Deane, Moles, George T. Hanley, Los Angeles; W. P. McIntosh, Santa Barbara; Mrs. E. P. Lowell, Redondo; Mrs. Munson, Santa Monica; Simon Will, Cincinnati.

Tonight Co. B will celebrate the second anniversary of its organization by a banquet at the Painter Hotel. The feast will be a dainty one, and when it is concluded the rich viands have been given full time to digest the pleasure of the evening will be topped off by a dance. Brockway's orchestra will furnish the music. Those who attend may reasonably count upon spending a highly enjoyable time.

POMONA.

The School of Music's Last Soiree for the Term.

Hard at Work—Notes—Personalities.

[Branch office at Armour's Pharmacy, Second street, where news, advertisements, and orders for this paper are received.]

Pomona College School of Music gave its seventh and last soiree for this term on Monday evening at the college, when the following programme was presented:

"Symphony in G Minor," "Allegro Molto-Allegro-Finale" (Mozart)—First piano, Miss Hall, Mrs. Mahlon Wilson; second piano, Mary Jewell, Drora Barber.

Quartette, "Saviour Source of Every Blessing" (Mozart)—College choir.

"Rondo from Violin Concerto in E Flat, Op. 79" (Mozart)—C. C. Brannan.

"Gloria in Excelsis," second mass (Mozart)—Chorus class.

"Concertante for Two Violins" (Dauca)—Arthur Dole and Myrtle Webster.

Violin obligato, "Ave Maria" (Raff)—Grace Webster.

"Tarentella" (Nicole)—Stella M. Ford.

The attendance at this musical was large, and the productions by the pupils were highly appreciated. It was the occasion of a very successful evening.

The fact that here in our midst there is being done in a quiet, modest way a vast deal of good training in musical lines.

The college has been very successful in its work this fall. The enrollment has been 113, and the average attendance 100. The fall term closed yesterday, and the winter term will open Wednesday, January 6, 1892.

BREVITIES. J. K. Randall of San Luis Obispo is at Brown's.

Rev. O. Clute went to Riverside Monday to visit friends.

F. E. Farmer of the Palomares was in Los Angeles yesterday on business.

J. E. Packard and Frank L. Palmer went to Los Angeles yesterday on business.

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY.

The Boulevard Election to be Held Saturday.

A Large Majority Believed to be in Favor of the Boulevard.

Some Opposition, but Not Enough to Defeat It.

An Important Suit Against the City Now on Trial—Mme. de la Guerra Lays Claim to the City Hall—Brief Mention.

Saturday, December 20, an election will be held in the matter of the proposition, "Shall the city of Santa Barbara incur an indebtedness of $70,000 and issue bonds for the acquisition of title to land, and for the construction of a boulevard thereon?"

The plans call for a boulevard 100 feet wide from State street to Castillo street, a distance of four blocks along the beach, and from Castillo street a roadway will be built around Castle Point, heretofore impassable by carriages except at the very lowest tide. There will also be an eastern extension from State street to Milpas street, a distance of eight blocks along the beach. The plans also state that that part near Castillo street shall be provided with a hand stand, fountain, seats, etc., as the Council may direct.

If the proposition carries Santa Barbara will have a continuous drive of over a mile in length along the beach, passable either at high or low tide, and the opening of the road around Castle Point will be an access of several miles of hard beach, making a beautiful drive at low tide.

There is some opposition to the boulevard. A short time after the plans were turned a petition was circulated asking the Council to change the roadbed from bitumen to gravel. The petition was numerously signed. It stated that "while your petitioners are strongly in favor of a boulevard we feel it our duty as taxpayers to oppose and if possible defeat the project as at present outlined." There is also some opposition on the ground that the money could be expended to a better advantage, but it is believed that a large majority of the citizens are in favor of the project, and that it will undoubtedly carry.

DE LA GUERRA VS. THE CITY. The city of Santa Barbara has been on trial in the Superior Court for a day or two. The plaintiff alleges that in May, 1887, she was the owner and entitled to the property now occupied by the city hall, but that she was wrongfully and without compensation ejected from the possession thereof, and now sues for $5000 damages and $4000 costs for the loss of the value of rents, profits and costs.

The case of S. P. Stow vs. W. R. Strong & Co. has been dismissed in the Superior Court.

Susan Wheeler has brought suit in the Superior Court against Charles Wheeler for divorce.

Dr. John Cox, an old resident of this city, died at the Cottage hospital yesterday morning of heart disease.

Jose Espinosa was arrested Monday afternoon, charged with battery. His case was set for trial in Judge Crane's court.

Rev. Selah B. Brown has been invited to lecture at Coleta and at Carpinteria in the Presbyterian Church, and has accepted the invitation.

Some of the material to be used in the construction of the telephone line between this place and Ventura has been received by the company's manager in this city.

E. W. Caswell and wife, Los Angeles; L. P. Waller and wife, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hollister, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mott, New York, are at the San Marcos.

The following are recent arrivals at the hotel: Dr. C. P. Hough left for San Francisco, Cal.; R. A. Allen, F. Stock and J. L. Lewis and wife of Los Angeles, C. H. Saunders and George Spanne of Lompoc, John H. Conway of San Francisco, and Dr. C. S. Black, Mrs. Henry Stanley, St. Louis, Mo.

Supervisors D. T. Tonitt and Walter Elliott left for the home in the northern part of "county yesterday." Prof. R. L. Hickman is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knapp of Carpinteria left for San Francisco yesterday. Mr. E. Murphy, who has been in the city for several months, left yesterday by the Southern Pacific for Lowell, Mass., where he will take charge of the finishing department of a new plush mill. Dr. C. P. Hough left for San Francisco yesterday. Dr. C. M. Richter left for San Francisco yesterday after spending a few days in this city. George Spanne left yesterday for Iona, Mich., by the Santa Fé line.

PERSONALITIES. The Alhambra Tennis Club is to begin its second regular tournament Christmas day, with the usual events. Eight gold medals of beautiful design have been purchased, and will cause more than usual interest in the contests. The visitors are cordially invited. A small party of young people were pleasantly entertained Friday evening at the residence of J. C. Wallace.

There have been several shipments of oranges from the depot to San Francisco during the past week. The navel crop is very large this year and is very free from smut. Very little damage was done to the fruit over here, and a full crop of all varieties is expected.

The register at the Hotel Alhambra shows twelve new arrivals during the past week. Most of them expect to spend the winter here.

The Uses of Potash. [Exchange.] If the kitchen sink gets musty and stuffy-smelling it gets a dose of potash applied the last thing at night. I take about one tablespoonful of the clear potash to two quarts of warm water. After the potash has been poured into it into the pipes and make a stopper of a large potato cut in half and place over the drainage holes. In the morning a painful of hot water will clear the pipes perfectly and remove all disagreeable odors.

My bath-room and closets are treated in a similar fashion, except that great care is necessary in keeping the potash from contact with tin or zinc. All very greasy dishes are put into a kettle with water in which are dissolved a few grains of potash, and the grease is almost immediately removed.

A Grand Sight. [Covina Argus.] There is no prettier sight in all the range of horticulture, or one that gives greater satisfaction to the owner, than a well-laden orange tree when the globes of green have turned to gold, and it is no wonder that men when seeing it for the first time become filled with a wild desire to become orange growers. And it rarely proves a fleeting fancy. With most men it is a growing passion and only death may separate them from the beloved grove which they have treasured and won, and which they have watched with tender and loving faithfulness.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

A Kicker from Kickerstown.

POMONA, Dec. 20.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] I see that the State Board of Agriculture has in the matter of the citrus fair had the same absurd trick they did last year. As a South Californian and a grower of citrus fruits I protest against the action of the State board. I think we should distinctly and emphatically inform that autocratic body that now and in the future we stand to have our citrus fair managed by one of our own people. At the next session of our Legislature let our representatives be instructed to have the matter definitely settled by legislation. As for Jesse D. Carr, we have no earthly use for him as manager of our citrus fair. We do not care two cents about his great collied-executive or otherwise. He may be a second Napoleon for all we know or care. What we do know is that we have no use for him. If he looks at the matter in the proper light he will decline to accept the appointment. I do not wish to cast discredit on our face by severing our nasal organ, yet it seems to me that the growers should, as a matter of principle, make the stand that unless a manager from their own people and acceptable to them be appointed they will not support the State Citrus Fair. Then let Jesse D. Carr root and hold a nice citrus fair all by himself.

This action does not at all preclude our having a first-class citrus fair just the same. It is not necessary to go into details, but nothing could be more feasible than for the growers to get up the best citrus fair ever seen in Los Angeles. The matter has nothing to do with his conviction and he will not in any way contribute, as in the past he always has, to making the citrus fair a success unless the manager be promptly changed. Taken in conjunction with the appointment last year, the appointment of Jesse D. Carr as manager of our citrus fair by the State Board of Agriculture is a deliberate, intentional insult to the citrus growers of Southern California, and if those growers have the manliness to credit them with they will resist this insult in a way not to be forgotten.

CLOSED ON ATTACHMENT. The Seymour-Johnson Grocery Company Financially Embarrassed.

The grocery house of the Seymour-Johnson Company, on South Spring street, was closed by the Sheriff yesterday afternoon on an attachment to satisfy a claim of A. Haas & Co. for $4458.

Yesterday morning the firm filed an application with the Board of Trade for an extension of time on credits, and a meeting was at once called, and the matter laid before the directors. It was stated that the firm was doing a good business, and could meet all obligations if given time, and the case was referred to a committee consisting of Messrs. Bonebrake, Haas, Breed and Newmark.

It was thought early in the afternoon that satisfactory arrangements could be made, and the business continued, but later, when it was stated that other attachments, aggregating about $4000, were to follow, Under Sheriff Moran closed the doors and put a keeper in charge.

It has been known among business men for some time past that the finances of the company were not in a satisfactory condition, but of late they have, apparently, been doing a good business, and it was thought they might be able to pull through with a good holiday trade; but it appears that this could not be done.

The firm has been in business in the city for a number of years, and has always occupied a good position. It was originally Seymour & Johnson, but afterward incorporated as a stock company. About a year ago C. E. Donahue went into the company, and he has been associated in its management.

It is possible that steps will be taken to furnish bonds, so that business may be resumed.

Broken by the Sheriff yesterday afternoon on an attachment to satisfy a claim of A. Haas & Co. for $900. It is stated that the place will be closed only a day or two, and that it will be reopened under a new management.

In order to increase the sales of the popular preparation, White Pine Balsam, the proprietor has decided to inaugurate an interesting prize competition, open to all persons using his preparation, viz: Abel's, formerly Horns & Abel's, White Pine Balsam. This medicine needs no word of praise to commend it, but we beg to state, for the benefit of those who have never used it, that it leads everything as lung and cough medicine. For cough, cold, whooping cough, grip, in gripe, hoarseness, and in fact all throat and lung troubles, it works like a charm. It is an infallible remedy for children, being pleasant to take, and immediate in action. Rules governing this contest:

1. To the person sending me, before March 1, 1892, the largest list of words, constructed from the letters contained in the three words "White Pine Balsam," subject to conditions below, I will give twenty-five ($25.00) dollars in gold coin.

2. The list must contain English and Anglicized words only.

3. Letters must only be used as many times in each word, as they appear in the original words White Pine Balsam. The letters W, and M, for instance, can only be used once in each word, while the letters I and E can be used twice.

4. Words having more than one meaning, but spelled the same way, can only be used once. Plurals will be allowed.

5. Names of places and persons are not admissible.

6. All words used must appear in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary.

7. All words must be classed under their initial letters, i.e., all words beginning with A must be classed together, and other letters in like manner.

In order to compete for this prize, purchase a bottle of Abel's, or Horns & Abel's, White Pine Balsam of any drugist, cut out trade mark from outside cartoon and mail same to the proprietor, when your name will be entered upon a book with date of postmark. Lists can be sent any time before March 1, 1892. The name of successful contestant will be published in this paper March 15, 1892. Be sure and send full postoffice address and number of words contained in list when the same is sent. If two or more tie on the largest list, the prize will be awarded to the person whose name shall be registered the earliest, hence the importance of sending the pine cone trade mark and having your name registered as soon as possible. A dollar bottle of White Pine Balsam will be delivered free to any express office on the Coast on receipt of price.

Address all communications, pine cone, care of H. A. & Co., 421-427 N. Main st., Los Angeles, Cal.

Cut out this offer as it will only appear a short time. The price of White Pine Balsam is 25c. per bottle. Trade marks from any size cartoon will entitle sender to registration. Facsimile of trade mark is inserted above.

Our Motto

"A dollar's worth for a dollar" is the motto of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other well-known vegetable remedies, and is pronounced by experts the strongest and best preparation of the kind yet produced. It owes its peculiar strength and medicinal merit to the fact that it is prepared by a Combination, Proprietor, and Process.

Peculiar to Itself.
discovered by the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and known to no other medicine. Its prompt action on the blood removes all impurities, and cures scrofula, salt rheum, sores, boils, pimples, all humors, and all diseases or affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it to be the best blood purifier I have ever used." Mrs. H. FIELD, Auburn, Cal.

The Best Medicine.
"I have used six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion. It has helped me a great deal. I think it is the best medicine for indigestion and dyspepsia." Mrs. N. A. LAUDERDALE, 192 North Fifth Street, San Jose, Cal.

Orange and Lemon Lands
At Redlands, Montone and Barton Ranch. Only 10 per cent cash down; no further payment for 6 and 10 years.

Over 400,000 worth of this class of land has been sold by the undersigned in Montone and Redlands in the past two years. The demand for land at MONTONE has increased very materially since last winter on account of not having any frost there to injure the most delicate shoot on the orange tree. The demand will be greater now than ever before, for the reason that the recent storms did not do one dollar's damage. The formation of the mountains around MONTONE is such that it is almost entirely free from the north and east winds. It being about 2,000 feet above sea level, and about 80 miles from the ocean, the fogs do not drift in. The air is cool in summer and warm and dry in winter. The budded orange tree, strawberry, guava, apricot, peach and all other fruits grow at MONTONE first year after planting. The olive grown on three-year-old trees received first premium at the State Fair this year.

Location.
Montone is the highest station on the Santa Fe R. R., 11 miles from San Bernardino, only 3 miles east of the business center of Redlands. The Motor line and Southern Pacific are now preparing to extend their roads to Montone; they are within three miles of there at present. The oranges, lemons, olives and all other fruits grown at MONTONE and vicinity are the best and highest priced in the market, as there is no black frost, no scale bug or fruit pests of any kind. There are orange, lemon and about all other kinds of fruits and vines there more than 20 years old. Some of the orange trees bearing 15 boxes to the tree, and some of the lemons 30 boxes. The prettiest hotel in Southern California is now being built at MONTONE. It will be lighted with incandescent lights.

Chance for Contract Work.
Any settler at MONTONE will have the privilege of paying one-fourth the price of his land in contract work or team work by the day, providing he has an agreement to that effect in writing at time of purchase.

Barley Land Free of Charge.

Description and Prices of a Few of the Cheapest Pieces.
10 acres of choice fruit, all in bearing, in the city of Redlands, and only one mile from railroad station on Santa Fe line; house, barn, etc., all new; lot on highest corner, about 100 feet square; clear stream of water along one side about 120 feet, and lined with beautiful trees; fruit consists of 250 orange trees, 600 peach trees, 100 apricot trees, 100 nectarine trees, 100 apple trees, 7 figs, 8 walnuts, 2 pear trees, all in bearing; besides 150 young orange trees and a nursery of 500 orange trees. Price $800; terms $400 cash, balance in annual payments.

10 of the best 10-acre pieces on the Barton Ranch, only one mile from the center of the city of Redlands, $500 each; only 10 per cent cash; no further payment for 10 years; interest 6 1/2 per cent, per annum. 10 acres, all planted, with house, barn and other improvements; lot on highest corner, about 100 feet square; clear stream of water along one side about 120 feet, and lined with beautiful trees; fruit consists of 250 orange trees, 600 peach trees, 100 apricot trees, 100 nectarine trees, 100 apple trees, 7 figs, 8 walnuts, 2 pear trees, all in bearing; besides 150 young orange trees and a nursery of 500 orange trees. Price $800; terms $400 cash, balance in annual payments.

4 1/2 acres on the principal residence street of Redlands; house worth $500; land all in the budded orange trees; price $100. 160 acres adjoining Montone, fine spring of water on the highest portion of it; a few hundred yards from the railroad station; lot large two-thirds of it, all of which is excellent water and one land; 30 acres of it was planted to wheat last season; the price can be divided into several nice homes. Price, only $400 per acre.

35 acres at Montone, 5 of which is in the budded orange trees; only $250 per acre. The naked land is worth more than $300 per acre.

RAISE...
Some Lemons.
KNOWING ones predict that lemons are the coming crop. So as to be in the swim and in position to catch the wind when it comes, secure some of the East Whittier tract and put it out in lemons and when others are reeling rich rewards in the lemon line you will be with them on the flood tide. Experts have pronounced the East Whittier Tract especially adapted to this crop. Rich deep soil, warm south and southeast frontage, with the Puente Hills on the north and northeast; practically frostless, one can raise all kinds of vegetables and small fruits the year round between the rows while the trees are growing. The lemon trees begin bearing the third year. We don't ask you to take our word for it, but come and examine. We can show you 3-year Eureka lemon trees loaded with finest fruit; orange trees not yet 3 years old more than a box of fine navel's now hanging on a single tree. If such results can be shown with no water, what may be expected with plenty of fine soft water?

No Sage Brush, Stones, or Cactus to clear away,
But the ground has been cultivated for years and only needs plowing and harrowing to put it in good shape for trees. Bear in mind that money invested now in any good acreage in any good location is better than mortgage security at 10 per cent and in choice localities of which

EAST WHITTIER
Is the choicest. The advance will be something wonderful as now with plenty of water nothing will check its growth. Prices for the present, $200 per acre with water. We cannot promise it will be the same after the holidays. Choice selections are still to be had; secure them while you can. Make your wife a Christmas present of 5, 10 or 20 acres of the East Whittier Tract; set it out in oranges or lemons or any other trees and each Christmas you'll congratulate yourself on your wise choice and fortunate purchase. Come and see the lands and they will please you, or write to

THE COURTS.

Sentence Passed on Edward L. Baker.

Fourteen Years in San Quentin for the Crime of Forgery.

A Hung Jury in the Steak Assault to Murder Case—Charged with Violation of the Postal Laws—General Court Notes.

The announcement that Edward L. Baker, the real estate man, recently convicted of forgery, was to appear before Judge McKinley at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning for sentence attracted a small crowd to the courtroom of Department Six at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, but those of the morbidly curious class who expected a scene must have been sorely disappointed.

The proceedings commenced by argument on the motion for a new trial, the matter being presented by Messrs. S. M. White and Z. G. Peek for defendant and Assistant District Attorney McComas for the prosecution. At the close of the argument, in support of which two affidavits were filed to the effect that the testimony of John C. Hoy, the old man who was the first of the gang to be convicted, was in the nature of a surprise to the defense, and also for the purpose of showing that Hoy's reputation for truth and veracity was impeached, the matter was submitted, and Judge McKinley, after denying the motion, sternly ordered Baker to stand up. The Court then passed sentence as follows:

The duty which the Court has to perform in cases of this character is at all times delicate and difficult. In a case where the defendant has shown, as in this case, a former character which has been good. The offense is one that is very heinous in its character and threatening to society, because it is one that cannot be well guarded against, and the Court thinks that the punishment for it should be correspondingly severe. Such a sentence should be imposed as will be a severe punishment to the person committing it and a warning to others. The sentence of the Court is that the defendant be imprisoned in the State prison at San Quentin for the term of fourteen years.

Baker maintained his cool demeanor throughout the trying ordeal, not a muscle betraying the suffering he must have undergone, and at the close of the proceedings, marched steadily from the courtroom back to his cell in the County Jail.

It is understood that Judge McKinley has consented to issue a certificate of probable cause, in the event of an appeal to the Supreme Court, in order that Baker may remain here until the matter is decided.

THE DUNLAP-SHAFFER SUIT. Judge Shaw rendered his decision yesterday afternoon in the case of C. L. Dunlap vs. A. C. Shafer, a suit to recover $1084.70 alleged to have been paid on a contract for the purchase of land, with the terms of which defendants failed to comply, findings and judgment being ordered for plaintiff in accordance with the following opinion filed therein:

All questions as to the sufficiency of the allegations of the complaint may be dismissed from consideration because it is well settled that under his count for money had and received plaintiff may recover money paid on a contract which has been rescinded.

The question whether the five days time specified in the notice of December 22, 1890, for defendant to perform was, or was not reasonable, is not important, because in fact defendant was allowed forty days thereafter before suit was brought within which he might have perfected his title and tendered his deed. If he considered five days unreasonable, he should have so informed Mr. Tyler at the time, and at all events made some effort to perform his obligation.

Instead of making an effort it appears that he has done absolutely nothing; he simply stated that thirty days would be required, but did not ask for any extension, nor make any effort to perform either then or at any other time.

Upon the question of fact as to whether or not defendant prior to the maturity of the contract had made any effort to perform either then or at any other time, I think the preponderance is with the plaintiff. Mr. Tyler's positive recollection must prevail over Mr. Shafer's want of memory, both being equally credible. The fact that he really was not able to make a good title at that time strongly corroborates the testimony of Mr. Tyler. I think plaintiff was excused from making offer promptly on the day, and also from making it before he actually did. The delay was at the request of defendant.

I do not think it was necessary that Doan should have participated in the statements. Plaintiff has never offered to release any interest he may have under the contract which is recorded. From the point of view occupied by an abstract office this may, perhaps, be a condition precedent to recovery. But when the matter is viewed in the light of the records of this court as much public records as those of the Recorder's office, and the record of this case will be ample to show that the plaintiff's claim was made under the contract, as far as the land is concerned, if he obtains the judgment he asks for. The possession of the land is generally regarded as his mistress only. One of the witnesses, a back-driver, testified that he had been employed by Domingo to convey Delphina to his room at night. The case will be resumed today.

THE TIBBETTS-SMITH DAMAGE SUIT. The trial of the case of E. M. Tibbetts vs. E. T. Smith et al., a suit for damages in the sum of $1000, alleged to have been sustained by reason of the loss of plaintiff's house at Santa Monica by fire, which was claimed originated from a stove in which crude oil was burned by defendant, who leased the premises from plaintiff, was resumed before Judge Wade and a jury in Department Three yesterday morning.

Five witnesses were called for the defense, and two were called in rebuttal for plaintiff, when both sides closed. The matter was ably argued pro and con by Messrs. S. C. Hubbell, A. G. Hickey and J. A. Donnell, who were finally submitted to the jury, who retired, and in about an hour returned with a verdict for the defendant.

RESULTED IN A MISTRIAL. The jury in the case against W. F. Steack, charged with having assaulted Constable Kerns of San Fernando with intent to commit murder on September 28 last, was instructed by Judge Smith at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and retired for deliberation twenty minutes later. Nothing was heard from that body, however, until 2:30 o'clock when the Court ordered the jurors brought in, and upon learning that they stood nine to three for acquittal, with no prospect of an agreement, discharged them, the case being again placed on the trial calendar to be reset.

VIOLATED THE POSTAL LAWS. Arthur Richardson, a well-known resident of Prospect Park, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Van Dyke, charging him with having violated one of the postal laws of the United States, in that he caused and provided on December 3 last for the conveyance of letters and packets by regular trips each Monday and Thursday, over a certain post route, established by law, to-wit, between Los Angeles and Colegrove via Prospect Park. He was released upon his own recognizance to appear for examination on January 16 next.

Court Notes. Owing to the temporary indisposition of Judge Van Dyke, all matters on yesterday's calendar in Department Four were continued by Judge Smith.

In Department Six yesterday the trial of the case of J. V. Sproule vs. the Temple Street Cable Railway Company, a suit for damages, was resumed before Judge McKinley and a jury, and occupied their attention almost all day. The matter will probably reach the jury today.

Mrs. Phoebe S. Colling was granted a decree by Judge McKinley yesterday divorcing her from B. C. Colling, on the ground of cruelty.

Louis Meyer was brought in from Delano in Kern county, yesterday morning and taken before United States Commissioner Van Dyke for arraignment upon the charge of being a counterfeiter, he having a mould in his possession. He was committed to jail in default of bail in the sum of $3000 to insure his appearance for examination on January 5 next.

Among the documents filed with the County Clerk yesterday were the preliminary papers in the following new cases:

S. M. Stewart vs. G. C. Arnold et al.; suit to recover the sum of $2437.40, alleged to have been due for labor and material furnished in the construction of the Escondido Seminary of the University of Southern California.

William Whartenby et al. vs. First National Bank; suit to recover $941.86, alleged to be due for money deposited in the bank by James Whartenby, deceased.

A BLOOD-DRINKER. A Nebraska Child With a Most Remarkable Mania.

Kearney (Neb.) Dec. 14.—[Correspondence.] The six-year-old girl of a farmer named Smith, living a few miles from this place, has recently developed a most remarkable appetite, which is alarming the parents and puzzling the local physicians. The appetite is for fresh blood, which the child seems to prefer warm from the creature supplying it. The girl is of a slight appearance, with fair hair and blue eyes. Ordinarily she is of a shrinking disposition, dreamy and languid and inclined to be nervous. For some days before her appetite was noticed she became torpid and very much averse to any movement. She was supposed to be ill, and a physician called to see her. She refused to take either medicine or nourishment, and her mother, in a fit of despair, tempted her to eat, killed a chicken for her. As she held the bleeding fowl in her hand little Ernestine sprang upon her, wrenched the chicken from her hand and, applying her lips to the gory neck, sucked the warm blood. The horrified physician and mother, tempted to take it from her but she fought savagely for it, and, fearing her reason might give way, the doctor told her parents to let her have it.

After she had finished her hideous meal she threw herself on the floor and fell into a sleep from which she did not awaken for twenty-four hours. On awakening she appeared to be her natural self and had no recollection of what had occurred. Since then the attacks have occurred at intervals of three weeks and on the advice of the physician she is given some freshly-killed animal food. When this was refused her mother at one time she threw herself on her baby brother and had tried to bite a hole in his back to suck his blood. On another occasion she bit her own wrist until it bled in an effort to get the blood. The doctors think the peculiar trouble will pass away, but her parents are of the opinion that the attacks are becoming more frequent.

THE CITRUS FAIR.

Important Meeting of the Committee Yesterday.

Permanent Organization Effected and Officers Elected.

An Attractive Premium List Adopted with Money Premiums of $2765—All Citrus and Semi-tropic Fruits Provided For.

There was an important meeting of the Citrus Fair Committee yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce, the following delegates being present: Orange county, George W. Ford; San Diego, R. H. Young; San Bernardino, William Friend of Ontario, J. W. F. Diss of Redlands, W. E. Holmes of Riverside, S. B. Fox of Colton and R. M. McKee delegate-at-large; Los Angeles county, F. J. Smith of Pomona, F. Q. Story of Alhambra, John Scott of Duarte, H. L. Montgomery of Rivera, John A. Pirtle of Vernon, W. E. Ferguson of Glendora, E. Germain, Robert McGarvin and E. F. C. Klokke of Los Angeles.

The roll call showed, all delegates present except five, and Eugene Germain was chosen to act as temporary chairman.

Mr. Young of San Diego moved that in addition to the regular delegate one delegate at large be elected for all Southern California.

The motion carried and C. M. Wells of Los Angeles was elected as such delegate-at-large.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION. A series of resolutions for the permanent organization of the association were read and adopted. These resolutions provided that the association shall consist of twenty-two delegates, the division of the delegates among the various counties to be determined by the citrus product of 1891; that the officers of the association shall consist of president, vice-president and secretary; that the executive committee shall be composed of five members—three from Los Angeles, one from San Bernardino and one from Orange counties—of whom three shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; that the Executive Committee shall have a chairman, secretary and treasurer.

After the adoption of these resolutions a recess of five minutes was taken for the various members to decide upon the members of the Executive Committee and to discuss informally the matter of officers of the association.

When the convention reconvened it proceeded at once to the election of officers with the following result: President, Eugene Germain of Los Angeles; vice-president, W. E. Holmes of Riverside; secretary, C. D. Willard of Los Angeles.

The following gentlemen were elected as an Executive Committee: W. E. Holmes, representing San Bernardino county, George W. Ford of Orange county, and E. F. C. Klokke, E. Germain and F. J. Smith of Los Angeles county.

The election of the General Manager of the fair was next in order and C. D. Willard was duly elected, with Frank Wiggins superintendent.

A committee of three was appointed to report on the premium list at 1:30. Messrs. Young, Diss and Scott being named as such committee the convention then adjourned for lunch.

A committee of three, accompanied by C. D. Willard, promptly returned themselves to Jerry Hinch's restaurant, where they proceeded to digest a hearty luncheon and prepare a report, the presentation of which at the afternoon session was the signal for a long discussion. A number of amendments were made before it was finally adopted as follows:

Class 36—For best display of semi-tropic fruit not mentioned in this list: First premium, $25.

Total amount of list, $2765. THE DATE FIXED. After a good deal of discussion the date of the fair was fixed for March 2.

John Scott suggested that it be amended to February 17, holding that the fruit would be open earlier and decay sooner on account of the wind storm, but the March date prevailed, the Executive Committee being given power to change the date if any accident made it necessary. They were also given power to appoint judges, subject to the ratification of the association.

RESOLUTIONS. The following resolutions were offered by Mr. Young of San Diego, and adopted:

Resolved, that within two days after the close of the fair every locality shall be expected to present to the Executive Committee an itemized account of the expenses to which it has been put in connection with its display, said account to be accompanied in all cases by the receipts bills. All accounts presented according to the requirements shall constitute liens on the profits of the fair, if any exist, to be paid under the following conditions:

First, 50 per cent. of the profits, after all general expenses of the fair are paid, shall go to the Chamber of Commerce (that organization having agreed to raise a guarantee fund of $2500 and to loan the association the machinery of its office for the conducting of the fair,) to be used during the ensuing year in improving, increasing and caring for the general display of Southern California products in its exhibit hall, according to such methods as the Executive Committee of the Citrus Fair Association may decide. The remaining 50 per cent. of profits shall be used to pay the just claims of the localities as heretofore described. If the sum is sufficient, if it is insufficient payment shall be made in proportion to the claim. If, after paying all the just claims, any residue remains it shall be disposed of as the Executive Committee may decide.

The convention then adjourned.

Regular Weekly Meeting of the Board—The Social Evil Discussed.

The Police Commissioners met in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon with the Mayor presiding and Commissioners Snyder and Shatto present.

The pay-roll for December, amounting to $5244.97, was presented and approved.

The application of A. S. Denton for the transfer of the saloon license for No. 300 North Alameda street from the firm of Mark Moyle, being in regular form, was granted.

A communication was received from property owners in the vicinity stating that the premises from Nos. 137 to 143 San Pedro street are being occupied and used for immoral purposes, and asking that the nuisance be abated. Referred to the Chief for investigation.

The usual demands were presented and approved. George Compeer was appointed a special officer without pay from the city, on the request of the County Horticultural Commissioner, to look after the display of fruit in the city.

W. A. Hancock applied for a position on the force, and the application was filed.

Councilman McGarry briefly addressed the Commissioners in regard to removing houses of prostitution from Alameda street, between First and Aliso streets. He thought the Commissioners should make some effort to get these houses off the street, and put them in some section by themselves. It was an offense against public decency to have these places on the public streets, and if they should be removed to some isolated spot and kept there.

After some further general discussion the board adjourned.

A RAVING MANIAC.

Young John Lynch Suddenly Becomes Violently Insane.

Night before last John Lynch was arrested and locked up in the city prison for disturbing the peace. He was very tame all night and in the morning he was released, as his relatives, who are well-known citizens, called around and promised to take him home.

It is evident that they were not over-successful, for they had not been gone long when the young man appeared on First street between Main and Spring in an almost nude state.

He chased himself up and down the street a few times, when his eyes fell on an old countryman seated in his wagon sleeping off an over dose of la grippe medicine and dreaming about Christmas.

In less than a couple of seconds he had the poor old fellow in the bed of the wagon and was pounding the life out of him. The old fellow's cries brought several hundred idlers and Officer Steele to his assistance and Lynch was removed to the sidewalk with great violence.

The patrol wagon was sent for and Lynch was hurried to the central police station, when a medical examination proved him to be a raving maniac. He was then sent to the County Jail, where he was confined in the crazy cell and in perfect health to all appearances and his family say that he never showed any signs of insanity until yesterday.

The Fire Commissioners will meet in the Mayor's office this morning.

Willie Downing, the thirteen-year-old turkey thief, was yesterday given five years in the Whittier Reform School by Justice Austin.

All of the real estate men who were arrested day before yesterday for failure to pay the city house paid up yesterday except three or four, who intend to fight the case, and were discharged.

W. P. Slusher yesterday sent to the chamber of commerce, samples of silver and gold ore from Death Valley, valued at $350.75 per ton. L. N. Evans also contributed antimony ore from Kern county.

There are undelivered telegrams at the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company for C. W. Adams, Herbert Brown, Arthur Foreman, George Reiderich, Edward H. Drew, M. A. Haws, R. M. Lummers, Miss Minnie E. Lord.

An old soldier named West, from the Santa Monica Home, fell down in a fit on Spring street yesterday afternoon and was taken to the central police station, where he was booked for medical treatment, as he received a bad cut on the head.

John Ripley, who was arrested under the name of John Allen for stealing harness in Pasadena, was before Justice Owens of the Police Court yesterday, and the case was dismissed for the reason that the Police Court has no jurisdiction. Ripley was immediately rearrested and taken to the Township Justice's Court.

Police Commissioner J. P. Snyder has received a telegram notifying him of the death of his father, which occurred at Winston, N. C., on the 19th. Only a few days ago Mr. Snyder received a letter from his father, at which time he was in perfect health, and was planning for a family reunion in the near future.

One of the Catholic clergy in this city has received a letter from an attorney at Cotuit, Mass., stating that a woman named Catherine Ryan, widow of Lawrence Ryan, supposed to be in Los Angeles, is entitled to valuable property, which she can secure by making a will. The attorney, Chief Glass is looking the case up.

P. C. Towner, the Pomona lawyer who got too much in a gripe cure day before yesterday and took a ride in another man's carriage without the owner's permission and was thrown in the police station, was let out on bail yesterday morning. He did not show up in the Police Court when his case was called and it was continued until this morning.

Pentapolis Lodge, No. 202, F. and A. M., held its annual election Monday evening, with the following result: C. W. Pendleton, W. M.; E. Lupton, S. W.; S. L. Pritchard, J. W.; T. J. Weldon, treasurer, re-elected; W. W. Robinson, secretary, re-elected. Installation this evening in conjunction with Southern California and Los Angeles Lodges.

Edward Holst yesterday reported a curious robbery at his residence on West Ninth street, Monday night. Holst says some person or persons removed a portion of the tin roof of his barn and stole several letters and papers which he had concealed for safe-keeping. Holst's wife is suing him for a divorce, and thinks the persons were in her employ, their object being to secure evidence for the suit.

Our Motto

"A dollar's worth for a dollar" is the motto of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other well-known vegetable remedies, and is pronounced by experts the strongest and best preparation of the kind yet produced. It owes its peculiar strength and medicinal merit to the fact that it is prepared by a Combination, Proportion, and Process.

Peculiar to Itself, discovered by the proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and known to no other medicine. Its prompt action on the blood removes all impurities, and cures scrofula, salt rheum, sores, boils, pimples, all humors, and all diseases or affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it to be the best blood purifier I have ever used."—Mrs. H. FIELD, Auburn, Cal.

"I have used six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion. It has helped me a great deal. I think it is the best medicine for indigestion and dyspepsia."—Mrs. N. A. LAUDERDALE, 192 North Fifth Street, San Jose, Cal.

Christmas Presents

TRADE MARK.

Finest assortment of novelties in the city. Mexican curios, California goods.

An elegant line of opals, petrified wood, jewelry, and Mexican filigree work.

Souvenir Spoons.

For the two days before Christmas, for a little flyer, we will sell a line of different publishers' Cloth-bound 12mo Books at 15 cents.

This is a stupendous cut and is done only to clean out the entire stock.

Another Big Bargain:

Probably the finest thing attempted this year in the way of a gift book is Harper Bros.' magnificent illustrated edition of BEN HUR.

An illustration on every page, bound in two volumes, orange silk; publisher's price, just issued, $7, our price $4.50. Come and get them quickly, for they will not last long in our store at such a price. Our store is completely filled with an enormous stock of choice books, and we take great pleasure in offering great bargains to our patrons. To attempt to list these books would be too great a task, and we are consequently obliged to limit same to the brief mention of a few of them and the prices. We have everything marked plain. Our plan is to sell these goods, and we intend to.

During the Holidays we are offering Extra Special Prices.

Juvenile Books.

There is a bewildering display, hundreds of titles, beautiful designs, attractive covers, and the illustrations in colors and black and white. Here is where we are sure to please you.

Booklets.

Here again we are in the lead. We have all of the new numbers not seen before, shape booklets, monotypes, water colors, etchings and engravings. FOR SALE BY
W. P. McINTOSH.
144 SOUTH MAIN ST., - - LOS ANGELES, CAL.
Orange and Lemon Lands
At Redlands, Montone and Barton Ranch. Only 10 per cent cash down; no further payment for 6 and 10 years.

Over $400,000 worth of this class of land has been sold by the undersigned in Montone and Redlands in the past two years. The demand for this class of land is increasing every day. The price of this land is now $100 per acre, but it was only $50 per acre a few years ago. The demand for this class of land is increasing every day. The price of this land is now $100 per acre, but it was only $50 per acre a few years ago.

Location.
Montone is the highest station on the Santa Fe R. R., 11 miles from San Bernardino, only 10 miles east of the business center of Redlands. The Motor line and Southern Pacific are now preparing to extend their roads to Montone. They are within three miles of the present location. The oranges, lemons, and all other fruits grown at MONTONE and vicinity are the best and highest priced in the market. As there is no blight, no scale bug, or fruit pests of any kind. There are orange, lemon and about all other kinds of fruits and vines there more than 20 years ago. Some of the orange trees bearing 15 boxes to the tree, and some of the lemons 20 boxes. The prettiest home in Southern California is now being built at MONTONE. It will be lighted with incandescent lights.

Chance for Contract Work.
A settler at MONTONE will have the privilege of paying one-fourth the price of his land in contract work or team work by the day, provided he has an agreement to that effect in writing at time of purchase.

Barley Land Free of Charge.
The Montone Company will furnish settlers first-class Barley Land on which to raise grain, free of charge.

Description and Prices of a Few of the Cheapest Pieces.
16 acres of choice fruits, all in bearing, in the city of Redlands, and only one mile from railroad station on Santa Fe line; house, born, cemented reservoir at highest corner, about 100 feet square; clear stream of water along one side about 120 feet, lined with beautiful shade trees; fruits consist of 23 orange trees, 68 peach trees, 100 apricot trees, 100 nectarine trees, 100 apples, 7 figs, 3 walnuts, 9 pears, all in bearing; besides 120 young orange trees and a nursery of 300 fruit trees. Price, $800; terms $400 cash, balance in annual payments.

10 acres of the best 10-acre pieces on the Barton Ranch, only one mile from the center of the city of Redlands, and only one mile from the railroad station on Santa Fe line; a few hundred will develop enough water to irrigate two-thirds of it, all of which is excellent orange and lemon land. Exports have been planted to wheat last season; the piece can be divided into several nice homes. Price, only $40 per acre.
8 acres at Montone, 5 of which is in the budding orange trees, only $250 per acre. The naked land is worth more than $300 per acre.

RAISE... Some Lemons.

KNOWING ones predict that lemons are the coming crop. So as to be in the swim and in position to catch the wind when it comes, secure some of the East Whittier tract and put it out in lemons and when others are reaping rich rewards in the lemon line you'll be with them on the flood tide to fortune. Exports have pronounced the East Whittier Tract especially adapted to this crop. Rich deep soil, warm south and southeast frontage, with the Puente Hills on the north and northeast; practically frostless, one can raise all kinds of vegetables and small fruits the year round between the rows while the trees are growing. The lemon trees begin bearing the third year. We don't ask you to take our word for it, but come and examine. We can show you 25-year Eureka lemon trees loaded with finest fruit; orange trees not yet 3 years old with more than a box of fine lemons now hanging on a single tree. If such results can be shown with no water, what may be expected with plenty of fine soft water?

No Sage Brush, Stones, or Cactus to clear away, But the ground has been cultivated for years and only needs plowing and harrowing to put it in good shape for trees. Bear in mind that money invested now in any good acreage in any good location is better than mortgage security at 10 per cent and in choice localities of which

Is the choicest. The advance will be something wonderful as now with plenty of water nothing will check its growth. Prices for the present, $200 per acre with water. We cannot promise it will be the same after the holidays. Choice selections are still to be had; secure them while you can. Make your wife a Christmas present of 5, 10 or 20 acres of the East Whittier Tract; set it out in oranges or lemons or any other trees and each Christmas you'll congratulate yourself on your wise choice and fortunate purchase. Come and see the lands and they will please you, or write to

A. L. REED, General Manager.

THE COURTS.

Sentence Passed on Edward L. Baker.

Fourteen Years in San Quentin for the Crime of Forgery.

A Hang Jury in the Steak Assault to Murder Case—Charged with Violation of the Postal Laws—General Court Notes.

The announcement that Edward L. Baker, the real estate man, recently convicted of forgery, was to appear before Judge McKinley at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning for sentence attracted a small crowd to the courtroom of Department Six at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, but those of the morbidly-curious class who expected a scene must have been sorely disappointed.

The proceedings commenced by argument on the motion for a new trial, the matter being presented by Messrs. S. M. White and Z. G. Peek for defendant and Assistant District Attorney McCormack for the prosecution.

At the close of the argument, in support of which two affidavits were filed to the effect that the testimony of John C. Hoy, the old man who was the first of the hang jury to be convicted, was in the nature of a surprise to the defense, and also for the purpose of showing that Hoy's reputation for truth and veracity was impeachable, the matter was submitted, and Judge McKinley, after denying the motion, sternly ordered Baker to stand up. The court then passed sentence as follows:

The duty which the Court has to perform in cases of this character is at all times unpleasant, and especially so in a case where the defendant has shown, as in this case, a firm character, which is a warning to others. The offense is one that is very heinous in its character and very threatening to society, because it is one that cannot be well guarded against, and the Court thinks that the punishment for it should be correspondingly severe. Such a sentence should be imposed as will be a severe punishment to the person committing it and a warning to others. The sentence of the Court is that the defendant be imprisoned in the State prison at San Quentin for the term of fourteen years.

Baker maintained his cool demeanor throughout the trying ordeal, not a muscle betraying the suffering he must have undergone; and at the close of the proceedings, marched steadily from the courtroom back to his cell in the County Jail.

It is understood that Judge McKinley has consented to issue a certificate of probable cause, in the event of an appeal to the Supreme Court, in order that Baker may remain here until the matter is decided.

THE DUNLAP-SHAFFER SUIT.

Judge Shaw rendered his decision yesterday afternoon in the case of C. L. Dunlap vs. A. C. Shaffer, a suit to recover $1084.90 alleged to have been paid on a contract for the purchase of land, with the terms of which defendant has failed to comply, findings and judgment being ordered for plaintiff, in accordance with the following opinion filed therein:

All questions as to the sufficiency of the allegations of the complaint may be dismissed from consideration because it is well settled that under his contract for money had and received plaintiff may recover money paid on a contract which has been rescinded.

The question whether the five days time specified in the notice of December 22, 1890, for defendant to perform was, or was not, reasonable, is not important, as in fact defendant was allowed forty days thereafter before suit was brought within which he might have perfected his title and tendered his deed. If he considered five days unreasonably short he should have so informed Mr. Tyler at the time, and at all events made some effort to perform his obligation.

Instead of making an effort it appears that he has done absolutely nothing; he simply stated that thirty days would be required, but did not ask for any extension, nor make any effort whatever to perform either then or at any other time.

Upon the question of fact as to whether or not defendant, prior to the maturity of the contract, had knowledge of the fact that the land was not his, the plaintiff has the burden of proof. The plaintiff has never offered to release any interest he may have under the contract which is recorded. From the point of view occupied by an abstract office this may, perhaps, be a condition precedent to recovery, but it is not that in so, in law. The records of this court are at such public records as those of the Recorder's office, and the record of this case will be ample to show that the plaintiff can claim nothing under the contract, as far as the land is concerned, if he obtains the judgment he asks for. The possession of the land is deemed to be in the defendant, and nothing appears to the contrary.

I am of the opinion that plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in his complaint.

THE COHN CONTEST.
The trial of the case of the estate of Bernard Cohn, deceased, was resumed before Judge Clark in Department Two yesterday, the following witnesses being called and examined for the defense during the day: Teresa Frames, Clara Citalas, José M. Citalas, Teresa de Firembas, María Sepulveda, Uvalde Sanchez, Manuel Sepulveda, José Lopez, Encarnacion Sanchez and Benita Valle. All of the witnesses testified that they had known Delphina for years, and that they never saw anything that would lead them to believe that she was Cohn's wife; in fact, she was generally regarded as his mistress only. One of the witnesses, a back-driver, testified that he had been employed by Domingo to convey Delphina to his room at night. The case will be resumed today.

THE TIBBETTS-SMITH DAMAGE SUIT.
The trial of the case of E. M. Tibbetts vs. E. T. Smith et al., a suit for damages in the sum of $1000, alleged to have been sustained by reason of the loss of plaintiff's house at Santa Monica by fire, which it was claimed originated from a stove in which crude oil was burned by defendant, who leased the premises from plaintiff, was resumed before Judge Wade and a jury in Department Two yesterday morning. Five witnesses were called for the defense, and three were called in rebuttal for plaintiff, when both sides closed. The matter was ably argued pro and con by Messrs. S. C. Hubbell, A. G. Hinckley and J. A. Donnell, and was finally submitted to the jury, who retired, and in about an hour returned with a verdict for the defendant.

RESULTED IN A MISTRIAL.
The jury in the case against W. F. Steak, charged with having assaulted Constable Kerns of San Fernando with intent to commit murder on September 28 last, was instructed by Judge Smith at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and retired for deliberation twenty minutes later. Nothing was heard from that body, however, until 2:30 o'clock when the Court ordered the jurors brought in, and upon learning that they stood nine to three for acquittal, with no prospect of an agreement, discharged them, the case being again placed on the trial calendar to be reset.

VIOLATED THE POSTAL LAWS.
Arthur Richardson, a well-known resident of Prospect Park, was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Van Dyke, charging him with having violated one of the postal laws of the United States, in that he caused and provided on December 3 last for the conveyance of letters and packets by regular trips each Monday and Thursday, over a certain post route, established by law, to-wit, between Los Angeles and Colegrove via Prospect Park. He was released upon his own recognizance to appear for examination on January 16 next.

Court Notes.
Owing to the temporary indisposition of Judge Van Dyke, all matters on yesterday's calendar in Department Four were continued by Judge Smith.

In Department Six yesterday the trial of the case of J. V. Sproule vs. the Temple Street Cable Railway Company, a suit for damages, was resumed before Judge McKinley and a jury, and occupied their attention almost all day. The matter will probably reach the jury today.

Mrs. Phoebe S. Colling was granted a decree by Judge McKinley yesterday divorcing her from B. C. Colling, on the ground of cruelty.

Louis Meyer was brought in from Delano, in Kern county, yesterday morning and taken before United States Commissioner Van Dyke for arraignment upon the charge of being a counterfeiter, he having a mould in his possession. He was committed to jail in default of bail in the sum of $2000 to insure his appearance for examination on January 5 next.

New Suits.
Among the documents filed with the County Clerk yesterday were the preliminary papers in the following new cases:

S. M. Stewart vs. G. C. Arnold et al.; suit to recover the sum of $2437.40 alleged to have been due for labor and material furnished in the construction of the Escondido Seminary of the University of Southern California.
William Whartenby et al. vs. First National Bank; suit to recover $841.86, alleged to be due for money deposited in the bank by James Whartenby, deceased.

A BLOOD-DRINKER.

A Nebraska Child With a Most Remarkable Mania.
KEARNEY (Neb.) Dec. 14.—[Correspondence.] The six-year-old girl of a farmer named Smith, living a few miles from this place, has recently developed a most remarkable appetite, which is alarming the parents and puzzling the local physicians. The appetite is for fresh blood, which the child seems to prefer warm from the creature supplying it. The girl is of a slight appearance, with fair hair and blue eyes. Ordinarily she is of a shrinking disposition, dreary and languid and inclined to be nervous. For some days before her appetite was noticed she became torpid and very much averse to any movement. She was supposed to be ill, and a physician called to see her. She refused to take either medicine or nourishment and her mother, thinking to tempt her to eat, killed a chicken for her. As she held the brooding fowl in her hand little Ernestine sprang upon her, wrenched the chicken from her hand and, applying her lips to the gory neck, sucked the warm blood. The horrified physician and mother attempted to take it from her but she fought savagely for it, and, fearing her reason might give way, the doctor told her parents to let her have it.

After she had finished her hideous meal she threw herself on the floor and fell into a sleep from which she did not awaken for twenty-four hours. On awakening she appeared to be her natural self and had no recollection of what had occurred. Since then the attacks have occurred at intervals of three weeks and on the advice of the physician she is given some freshly-killed animal or fowl. When this was refused her at one time she threw herself on her baby brother and had tried to bite a hole in his back to suck his blood. On another occasion she bit her own wrist until it bled in an effort to get the blood. The doctors think the peculiar trouble will pass away, but her parents are of the opinion that the attacks are becoming more frequent.

THE CITRUS FAIR.

Important Meeting of the Committee Yesterday.

Permanent Organization Effected and Officers Elected.

An Attractive Premium List Adopted with Money Premiums of $3705.—All Citrus and Semi-tropic Fruits Provided For.

There was an important meeting of the Citrus Fair Committee yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce, the following delegates being present: Orange county, George W. Ford; San Diego, R. H. Young; San Bernardino, William Friend of Ontario, J. W. F. Diss of Redlands, W. E. Holmes of Riverside, S. B. Fox of Colton and R. M. McKee delegate-at-large; Los Angeles county, F. J. Smith of Pomona, F. Q. Story of Alhambra, John Scott of Duarte, H. L. Montgomery of Rivera, John A. Pirtle of Vernon, W. E. Ferguson of Glendora, E. Germain, Robert McGarrin and E. F. C. Klokke of Los Angeles.

The roll called showed all delegates present except five, and Eugene Germain was chosen to act as temporary chairman.

Mr. Young of San Diego moved that in addition to the regular delegate one delegate at large be elected for all Southern California.

The motion carried and C. M. Wells of Los Angeles was elected as such delegate-at-large.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.
A series of resolutions for the permanent organization of the association were read and adopted. These resolutions provided that the association shall consist of twenty-two delegates, the division of the delegates among the various counties to be determined by the citrus product of 1891; that the officers of the association shall consist of president, vice-president and secretary; that the executive committee shall be composed of five members—three from Los Angeles, one from San Bernardino and one from Orange counties; that the association shall have a chairman, secretary and treasurer.

After the adoption of these resolutions a recess of five minutes was taken for the various members to decide upon the members of the Executive Committee and to discuss informally the matter of officers of the association.

When the convention reconvened it proceeded at once to the election of officers with the following result: President, Eugene Germain of Los Angeles; vice-president, W. E. Holmes of Riverside; secretary, C. D. Willard of Los Angeles.

The following gentlemen were elected as an Executive Committee: W. E. Holmes, representing San Bernardino county, George W. Ford of Orange county, and E. F. C. Klokke, E. Germain and F. J. Smith of Los Angeles county.

The election of the General Manager of the fair was next in order and C. D. Willard was duly elected, with Frank Wiggins superintendent.

A committee of three was appointed to report on the premium list at 1:30. Messrs. Young, Diss and Scott being named as such committee, the convention then adjourned for lunch.

The committee of three, accompanied by C. D. Willard, promptly betook themselves to Jerry Illich's restaurant, where they proceeded to digest a hearty luncheon and prepare a report, the presentation of which at the afternoon session was the signal for a long discussion. A number of amendments were made before it was finally adopted as follows:

THE DATE FIXED.
After a good deal of discussion the date of the fair was fixed for March 2.

John Scott suggested that it be amended to February 17, holding that the fruit would ripen earlier and decay sooner on account of the windstorm, but the March date prevailed, the Executive Committee being given power to change the date if any accident made it necessary. They were also given power to appoint judges, subject to the ratification of the association.

RESOLUTIONS.
The following resolutions were offered by Mr. Young of San Diego, and adopted:

Resolved, that within two days after the close of the fair every locality shall be expected to present to the Executive Committee an itemized account of the expenses to which it has been put in connection with its display, said account to be accompanied in all cases by the receipts bills. All accounts presented according to these requirements shall constitute liens on the profits of the fair, if any exist, to be paid under the following conditions:

First, 50 per cent of the net profits after all general expenses of the fair are paid, shall go to the Chamber of Commerce (that organization having agreed to raise a guarantee fund of $2500 and to loan the association the machinery of its office for the conducting of the fair,) to be used during the ensuing year in improving, increasing and caring for the general display of Southern California products in its exhibit hall, according to such methods as the Executive Committee of the Citrus Fair Association may outline to the board of directors of the chamber; the remaining 50 per cent of profits shall be used to pay the just claims of localities as hereinafter described. If the sum is sufficient; if it is insufficient, payment shall be made in proportion to the claim. If, after paying all the just claims, any residue remains it shall be disposed of as the Executive Committee may decide.

The convention then adjourned.

Regular Weekly Meeting of the Board—The Social Evil Discussed.

The Police Commissioners met in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon with the Mayor presiding and Commissioners Snyder and Shatto present.

The pay-roll for December, amounting to $5244.97, was presented and approved.

The Chief reported favorably in the matter of the application of B. Richmond for a saloon license for the corner of San Pedro and Seventh streets, and the same was granted.

The application of A. S. Denton for the transfer of the saloon license for No. 300 North Alameda street, from in the name of Mark Moyle, being in regular form, was granted.

A communication was received from property owners in the vicinity stating that the premises from Nos. 137 to 143 San Pedro street are being occupied and used for immoral purposes, and asking that the nuisance be abated. Referred to the Chief for investigation.

The usual demands were presented and approved.

George Compeer was appointed a special officer without pay from the city, on the request of the County Horticultural Commissioner, to look after infested fruit in the city.

W. A. Hancock applied for a position on the force, and the application was filed.

Councilman McGarry briefly addressed the Commissioners in regard to removing houses of prostitution from Alameda street, between First and Aliso streets. He thought the Commissioners should make some effort to get these houses off the street, and put them in some section by themselves. It was an offense against public decency to have these places on the public streets, and they should be removed to some isolated spot and kept there.

After some further general discussion the board adjourned.

A RAVING MANIAC.

Young John Lynch Suddenly Becomes Violently Insane.
Night before last John Lynch was arrested and locked up in the city prison for disturbing the peace. He was very tame all night and in the morning he was released, as his relatives, who are well-known citizens, called around and promised to take him home.

It is evident that they were not over-successful, for they had not been gone long when the young man came out on First street between Main and Spring in an almost nude state.

He chased himself up and down the street a few times, when his eyes fell on an old countryman seated in his wagon sleeping off an over-dose of la grippe medicine and dreaming about Christmas.

For some reason young Lynch took a decided dislike to the old man and quicker than a flash he piled in the wagon and made a grab for the ancient haycock.

In less than a couple of seconds he had the poor old fellow in the bed of the wagon and was pounding the life out of him. The old fellow's cries brought several hundred idlers and Officer Steele to his assistance and Lynch was hauled on the sidewalk with great violence.

The patrol wagon was sent for and Lynch was hurried to the central police station, where a medical examination proved him to be a raving maniac. He was then sent to the County Jail, where he was confined in the crazy cell, where he will have his examination today. He is in perfect health to all appearances and his family say that he never showed any signs of insanity until yesterday.

The Daily Lives and Environment of Cornish Boys.

Their Games and Pastimes—"Cob Nutting" and the "Long Hunt"—Life in the Mines—Labor and Living—By Edgar L. Wakeman.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

CRUICKSHANK, Dec. 25.—It is a "talk and a seat," as Cornish folk themselves say, that is a word and a blow, and often the blow first, in the discipline of Cornish children and particularly with Cornish boys.

The girls of Cornwall give nobody trouble in early life. They are little automata in youth, silent as pagan stone circles in glacial, voiceless and blushing thereafter until wedded, when they at once develop such strength of character, temper and tongue that half the men of Cornwall are known individually as "Jenny's Jack," and in rivalry are greeted with the inquiry:

"How's the woman as owns 'ee'?"

Whether or not the boys require rough treatment, they get it. They seem to expect it, and they thrive under it. They are all boys of parents who labor severely, and whose fathers before them for more than a thousand years have drugged and striven in the same sturdy way. Sentiment in child training is here unknown. A drill hammer, a homesteaded boy, a huge fist, given along smartly with the reprimand. Discipline is almost unknown. Whenever it occurs it is a nine days' wonder to the entire village. Recently I witnessed an instance in a mining village. A miner had given his boy a command.

"We've got to," replied the lad stoutly.

"The woman's name is Jenny, isn't it?"

"I'll give 'ee a thump in the noddle" (back of the neck).

The words were not out of the father's mouth before he had knocked the boy senseless by a blow in the "noddle." No one expressed surprise at the treatment, and the boy was left where he fell until his senses returned, when he marched straightway to carry out his father's command. But the astonishment and horror at the boy's disobedience set the entire village in an uproar.

The Cornish boy is not permitted to imagine himself proficient. One boy I know, apprenticed to a shoemaker, and a village joiner and undertaker, had made a little dovetailed box with hinges, lock and key, in which to store his pennies and other boy treasures. He was naturally proud of the achievement, and asked the old man if the work was not well done. The latter immediately proceeded to kick the boy aspirant from one end of the village to the other.

Still, in their way and within their rigorous conditions of life, the boys of Cornwall are perhaps as jolly a lot and secure as much rough, boyish enjoyment as the lads of any other country in the world.

Their costume from the age of four to about ten is peculiar and gives them the appearance of red-dressed girls. Their feet are shod with light hob shoes, over which short, coarse woolen stockings are always hanging. A bare reach of shin intervenes between the heel and the foot, or ordinary trousers. Over the latter is a skirt, as with the boys of the west of Ireland, reaching to the knees. Trousers and skirt hang from a rough, woolen waist and over all is a loose "savel," or save all, of canvas or coarse muslin, something after the pattern of a short smock frock. The headgear is a simple, flat-topped cap or billycock hat of fawn with the best of ventilation always provided.

At this age the Cornish boy is simply a voracious little animal, bent solely on supplying a never wholly satisfied hunger, and his mother's chief duties toward him consist in providing food and the means of obtaining it.

What he is forever demanding in the form of "meat" is "meat." He means treacle and a morsel of bread, and the happiest hours of his life are employed in its consumption. He has few "dresses" or errands, his chief labor being to supply the household with water. This he brought in buckets or dippers from fountains, from a distance of half mile to two miles, from "pen stalks," springs, or ancient Celtic holy wells, and this he manages to convert into diversion, as he is never without company.

The Cornish boy, either white-skirted or when he has reached the courtly age, is never inhuman in his little nature. He is various sturdy pastimes. All Cornish folk live in communities, more about in groups and even emigrate in crowds. Cornish fishers live in villages; miners are universally found in little mining towns, and from three or four to a dozen farmers, with their steading, and the families, are huddled close together. So there are scores of young "Cousin Jacks" in the smallest hamlets, and the advantage and pleasure of numbers are invariably possessed.

The games and pastimes of Cornish boys are distinctive, and are markedly different from those of boys of the same quality elsewhere in England. For instance, football, the universal boys' game of England, is altogether unknown in Cornwall. Cricketing is only kept up through the continued efforts of the church of England curates. But kite flying is a passion with all Cornish boys, and the "long hunt," as I have seen many a miner, after his long day's toil "below ground," seated upon some old pagan meath or tor above his village home, smoking his short pipe, and in a kind of grave rapture flying a kite taller than himself, in an endeavor to outdo a similar achievement on the part of his own boy and other village lads.

Two Cornish boys' games are universal, endless and very ancient. These are "cob nutting" and "cob nutting." The first is played in all open roads, paths and streets, and the second in any place under Cornish skies where two rival lads can secure room enough in which to crouch down and swing their stout little arms. In "cob nutting," a diagram similar to the one shown on deck for "ship billiards," with a rounded end like that of a bagatelle board, is drawn in the road; and the game consists of kicking with the left foot, the right foot being always held in the right hand, a round flat stone from the approaching line from one place to another, but never over but one line, clear around the entire thirteen spaces, and out again, without once having dropped the right foot. The little fellows become wonderfully expert in this difficult feat.

"Cob nutting" is an all the year round sport. Much of its zest comes from the dangers in securing the nuts necessary for the year's supply. Common hazelnuts are used. These are got at great risks from the dense copes and forest edges. The trees, with the "sticks" still on, are stored away in the attic and dried with the greatest care, so that the nut becomes hard and bony. The hazelnuts are allowed to literally fall out of their sheaths. All the round, smooth, ripe, shiny nuts are sacredly preserved for "cob nutting." It is often a Cornish boy's entire winter employment and diversion to prepare the cob nuts for the rest of the year's battle for superiority with his fellows. The sport takes its name from the "cob" or shell of the nut.

The cob nuts are prepared by boring a hole through each side of the nut, removing the kernel, and filling the hollow shell with lead or shotmaker's wax, the latter being preferred to the shotmaker's wax, the village is consequently an almost revered personage with all Cornish boys. A "waxed nut" drawn through a leaden "cob" or shell and held by a strong knot completes the cob nut, and you cannot find a boy in all Cornwall who has not one ready strung for contest and a pocketful ready for stringing for reserve contingencies.

Then there is always the "cob nutting" champion, to vanquish, which is the constant effort of all other boys of the village. A lad envious of his honors will side up to this champion with:

"Less ha! a go aw cob nuts."

"Yes, there's a mind to," is the rejoinder, and at it they go, squinting wherever the spirit of battle overcomes them. They are drawn for first "crack." The loser throws his hat upon the ground and lays his cob nut in a little hollow on its top. Then the "cobnut," or striker, holding his cob between the ends of the fingers of his left hand and the end of the attached waxed end in his right, after many feints and motions and "winks," brings his cob with almost the force of a bullet upon his opponent's. One or the other is "scated" or broken. It is turn and turn about. Generally one of the lads has his entire stock of reserve cobs destroyed. The victor dryly remarks:

"Wass think on now?"

"Here, my son, arten't through. Wait a minute, wust ee?"

He rushes to a friend for another supply with:

"Here, Jack, lend us one o' tha cob nuts, wust ee?"

"Wass a matter witha?"

"Es smoken all 't lems. Ef thee gives me time I'll scat 'ee."

And so this Cornish game of cob nuts has gone on since good King Arthur's time.

Another game or pastime of Cornish boys is the "Long Hunt," distinct from but bearing some resemblance to the "Hare and Hounds" chase, so famous with English boys at Rugby and elsewhere. Moonlight nights are selected for this sturdy and often greswome sport. A "leader" is chosen by the following counting out rhyme, heard everywhere among Cornish boys and girls:

I-re, o-re, l-gery, eben,
Eat a bone, crack a bone, ten or eleven;
Spin, spin, must be done.
Three times seven are twenty-one—out—out!

He is given a start of 100, counted aloud. He leads the followers into every weed and ghostly lane, by deserted mines, through graveyards, and everywhere his daring and ingenuity can take his own strong legs. He is "leader" even until he succeeds in evading capture, when the same counting out process is repeated.

"Rook day" is one of the happiest days of the year for Cornish boys. Lords of the manors throw open their forests and parks one day of each year, in the autumn, for wholesale slaughter of rooks. Aside from their participation in this battle with the rooks, they enjoy these grand English forests as only boys can, and succeed in carrying away great quantities of beech nuts for winter fireside cheer. Besides the young rooks make capital pies, and the boys go home from the day's glorious outing with what is to them one of the grandest feasts of the year.

Among the forbidden, dangerous and therefore most prized delights of Cornish boys are "bush beating" and the "starling hunt." The former is a mild form of poaching among the coppice wood and fir forests of the demesnes. Greatcoats, lanterns and clubs are the only outfit required. Blackbirds and graybirds—both of which make famous pies—are taken. They are knocked from their perches by well directed blows, and the more expert bush beaters will take a bird from its perch with his hand, killing it before it can make an utter sound.

The "starling hunt" has its greswome and doleful features. During the winter storms thousands of starlings will repair at night to the shelter of the old Norman tower of each parish church. The boys know this. Some one of them is a member of the change ringers, a choir boy, or is in some way situated so he can see into the church key. It is perilous and ghostly business, climbing up there among the bells. But they do it, taking along with them sacks and baskets for their game, and any material with which they can cover the stone shutters against the exit of the birds. Then the starling hunt begins. The starlings shriek and clamor even above the howling of the storm, frequently tearing the marauders' hands and faces frightfully in their mad efforts to escape. But not one is left alive, and I have known of six bushels of these hapless starlings being thus taken in one night.

There are many other ways and occasions whereby Cornish boys find rude and hearty pastime. Christmas is a feast day pure and simple. The Christmas bun is then their acme of delight. Each parish also has its annual parish feast day, when the vicar and other parishes come, and all the Cornish games are played and the drums beat. In Whitman week come the "vagrom men" with their wild beast shows from London, and from an immemorial custom all the lads go out for miles with candles and horns to escort the "vagroms" into the village. Then there is "Taking Sunday" at all Cornish towns, when a fair at Prize and Furry day at Helston and the great fires of St. John's day, when the old pagan blood asserts itself and leaps in their veins as they jump through the blazing rings or dance with lighted torches flaring and flaming above their heads.

But in time the "long hunt" begins. The boys are at once installed as "labbots," or helpers, in the mines. They bring swasticks and water for swabbing the drill holes; take the dulled drills above ground to the blacksmith shops for sharpening, and return them; bring the "crucible" or lunch to their fathers when the "touch" or "crucible" or "lunch" is taken; help shovel and wheel ore to the "skip"; learn to "twist the drill" and then to "strike the drill," and finally have become full fledged miners for "know tin." During their "labbot" days in the mines these Cornish boys are reckoned the most reckless during cuts and all England. They scorn to descend the shafts by the man engine, having a wild and startling way of their own. At the corner of each shaft is a "man hole" with stationary ladder from top to bottom with smooth half round sides and wrought iron "rungs." Strung upon these like monkeys the boys slide from one "labbot" or ladder to another, their hands just touching the slippery sides and the toes of their hob-nailed shoes beating the iron rungs with a horrible "whi-r-r-r-r-r!" the numbers engaged in the lightning-like descent causing deafening and shrill thunder as though the iron rungs at a hundred feet of food were clinking and screaming simultaneously.

THE YEARS WEIGH LIGHTLY.

Remarkable and Vigorous Old Age of a Distinguished Buckeye.

One of the most active of the campaigners in Ohio last fall, next to the candidates for governor themselves, was General Samuel F. Carey, who will be seventy-eight years old Feb. 18 next. He made twenty-three speeches in twenty days, on one occasion speaking in the afternoon and riding twenty-five miles in a carriage to keep an appointment for that evening. For his age he is one of the most vigorous men in the state. He has a remarkable record. He went on the stump in the Harrison campaign of 1833 for the Whig candidate, and since then has made over 10,000 political speeches, though not always for the same party. He was a Whig, then a Republican, leaving that party on the Johnson issue. In 1867 he was elected to congress as an independent Republican from the Cincinnati district, defeating Richard Smith, then editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, and succeeding R. B. Hayes in congress. He was a Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor of Ohio with Bill Allen, and in 1870 candidate for vice president with Peter Cooper on the Greenback ticket, being led to that by his opposition to Tilden. On the tariff reform issue he returned to the Democratic party, but was against the free silver plank in the Ohio platform of that party last fall.

He was born in Cincinnati, studied law and was appointed supreme judge of the state by the legislature before he was twenty-one. He is the oldest living past master of the Sons of Temperance. He has been chief of staff of three Ohio governors. He is cousin to Governor Fenton, of New York, and of Alice and Phoebe Carey, the poetess and a relative of Anna Louise Carey. In their day he was an intimate friend of Henry Clay and the celebrated Tom Corwin.

He singles out two occasions of his most remarkable speeches. One was at Albany, during the war, when he addressed 10,000 people until half past 3 o'clock in the morning on the issues of the war. The other was during a visit to England in 1869 and 1870 in the interest of the Temperance National Reform league, when he addressed an audience determined by card admissions to have numbered 43,334, in the Crystal Palace, London. He is an earnest and eloquent supporter of moral suasion as against prohibition.

OSCAR LENZ SAW SOME CURIOUS THINGS when he traveled through Morocco while ago. Among other remarkable sights were two little rivers that once a year, at the time of the greatest heat, are filled with red water. It is supposed the color comes either from a strata of red clay through which the streams may pass or from myriads of little red organisms. Another curious stream was a large creek with waters almost as salt as those of the ocean. This creek comes from great beds of salt, of which it carries off a very considerable quantity in solution. In the dry season the creek bed is exposed and is found to be covered with a thick incrustation of salt.

Chemical Method of Heating.

Every winter there arises controversies over the proper method of heating various sorts of vehicles. What seems a good plan has been adopted in France. The hot water boxes are to be taken out of the way carriages and warmth is to come from boxes filled with acetate of soda. These are filled with soda in a solid state, which is liquefied by being plunged into hot water. As it solidifies, which takes five or six hours, it steadily gives out heat.

Some Sensible Georgians.

The famous Iowa call case might have been paralleled at Stamp Creek, Ga., where some people went to law recently over six geese. But after the contestants had expended seventy dollars they came to their senses, compromised, divided the geese and quit fighting.

Launching of the New York.

The launching of the new armored cruiser New York at Philadelphia the other day was the chief event so far recorded in the history of the new American navy, and it was deemed highly appropriate that the vessel, because of its name, should be christened by a New York girl.

MISS HELEN PAGE.

The maiden chosen for the honor was the eighteen-year-old daughter of J. Seaver Page, and she went through the ceremony not only creditably, but with charming grace and poise. On the occasion Miss Helen, who is a stately blonde, wore a tailor made gown of peacock blue silk trimmed with black jet, a black hat to correspond trimmed with violet tinted feathers and jet, and in her hand she carried a bunch of violets.

Amber and Poetry.

Poets of every clime have drawn beautiful imagery from the "clois of sunshine" imprisoned within the boundaries of amber. Philosophers have speculated on its electrical manifestations; superstitious persons have endowed it with the supernatural powers attached to amulets and charms made of it; entomologists have spent much time in examining the curious development of insect life buried within its transparent substance; botanists have studied its strange growths and geologists have revealed in the old coniferous forests of amber dropping pine.

From the earliest ages it has graced the necks of fair women, by some being considered as a preventive of throat diseases.

INFESTED WITH SNAKES.

Rattlesnake Possession of a Cabin in Texas.

SOUTH BEND (Tex.) Dec. 14.—[Correspondence.] The cabin of Eliza Monroe, a negro woman living a few miles from this place, is at present furnishing quite a show for the people of the vicinity. The hut stands on the bank of a small creek known as Butler's, or sometimes Rattlesnake run, from the number of those snakes to be found near it. When cold weather set in the rattlers took up their residence in the cottage and refused to be dislodged. They are said to number thousands, and, of course, ran the woman out. It is proposed to set the place on fire and so get rid of the reptiles, but no one has been found brave enough to volunteer to apply the fire, as every attempt to approach is greeted by hundreds of hissing heads being thrust from the door and window and every crevice. They are also afraid that many of the reptiles would escape from the fire and go to other cabins on the creek.

A VALUABLE HEAD.

A Mexican Woman who Makes a Business of Selling Her Hair.

SANTA TOMAS (Tex.) Dec. 13.—[Correspondence.] Mercedes Lopez, a Mexican woman living just across the river from this place, has an extraordinary head of hair, probably the longest in the world. She is about five feet in height and when she stands erect her hair trails on the ground four feet and eight inches. When she sits down and draws her locks about her they hide her entire person so heavily that it is like thick clothing. The present growth on her head is only a little over five years old, for it gives her such headaches that she is compelled to cut it frequently. Every month she sells large quantities of it to a hair dealer. She is the wife of a common sheep-herder and is herself ignorant, but her tresses are the beautiful black hair of the old Castilian women.

A RELIGIOUS CONGRESS.

The World's Fair Plan Seems to Meet With Approval.

A Chicago dispatch of December 5 says that the Rev. John Barrows, chairman of the General Committee on Religious Congresses at the World's Fair, has made his first report of progress to President Bouney, of the World's Congress Auxiliary. The report shows the most remarkable interest in the proposed gatherings among leaders of religious thought all over the world, and promises a series of religious conferences during 1893 that will excel in magnitude and interest any similar meetings ever held. In his report Dr. Barrows calls special attention to the commendation from all quarters brought out by the proposal to hold a great ecumenical conference, a parliament of religions, at which representatives of all faiths and nationalities will be represented. On this Dr. Barrows says in part:

"I take especial pleasure in sending you the following endorsement of our plans from the pen of His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, under date of November 28: 'Judged by the tenor of the preliminary address of the General Committee on Religious Congresses, in connection with the Exposition of 1893, I deem this movement you are engaged in promoting worthy of all encouragement and praise. Assuredly a congress of eminent men gathered together to declare, as you addressers set forth, what they have to offer or suggest for the world's betterment, what religion has to throw on the labor problems, the educational questions and the perplexing social conditions of our time cannot but result in good to our common country. I rejoice, accordingly, to learn that the project for a religious congress at Chicago in 1893 has already won the sympathies and enlisted the active cooperation of those in the front rank of human thought and progress, even in other lands than ours. If conducted with moderation and good will such a congress may result by the blessing of divine providence in benefits more far-reaching than the most sanguine could dare to hope for.'"

Similar expressions of approval and promises of cooperation have been received from President Patton, of Princeton College; Joseph Cook, the lecturer; Prof. Conrad von Orelli, of Basle, Switzerland, the famous theological writer; President Harper, of the new Chicago University; Rev. Lyman Abbott; Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota; Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, of France; E. Willard and a host of others equally well known in religious and philanthropic work.

The Hon. W. E. Gladstone wrote on receipt of the preliminary invitation to the Congress: "I should be loath to impair views and conceptions of individuals to the adoption of formulated plans for the promotion of religious unity. Nevertheless, I cannot read without interest your communication. Narrow comprehension frequently operates as conclusion, and in your plan I cordially admire the feature of a wide and genuine comprehensiveness. The subject is too deep to trifle with, too large to enter on, but looking at it as a whole I cordially wish well to your Christian and philanthropic efforts."

In closing the chairman says: "Your committee realizes that an important and difficult work has been assigned it. But I am sure that you may count on our united and energetic labor to bring together devout scholars from many lands who have at heart the unity, peace and happiness of the world."

FORAKER'S FUSILLADE

And the Pounding of John Sherman's Heavy Guns.

The Sensational Battle On in the Buckeye State.

"The Old Man" Refuses to Lie Down, but Fighting Stands.

The Latest Phase of the Great Contest—Foraker Apparently Losing Ground—Votes Claimed for Each—Both Sides Confident.

COLUMBUS (O.), Dec. 17.—[Special correspondence of THE TIMES.] The Senatorial fight has reached fever heat. For the three weeks immediately following the election Mr. Foraker and his friends had the field almost to themselves, and they employed their time in making attacks upon Mr. Sherman, and boasting of their own strength. During the last week Sherman's friends have been striking back. Capt. Jake Donaldson, who is accredited with being Sherman's manager, stood two interviews in which he reverted to several subjects which the Foraker men are anxious should be forgotten. The ballot-box forgery received an airing in which the captain said that if he attended the incident neither Sherman nor any of his friends had aught to do with it. Foraker's friends discovered the document, Gov. Foraker gave it credence, and the Governor's friends gave it publicity. Therefore, whatever name was attached to the scandal Foraker and his friends had to bear it. The ballot-box forgery incident is the last thing the Foraker men want to discuss. Another fact which has been discussed is that Senator Sherman since 1869 has always had Democratic colleagues in the Senate. There were insinuations that this arrangement rather pleased the Senator, the Foraker men holding that Mr. Sherman was not anxious to divide the patronage of the State with a Republican colleague. The friends of Mr. Sherman showed that it was owing to the unpopularity of ex-Governor Sherman that the last two Democratic United States Senators were chosen. In 1883 Foraker was the Republican nominee for Governor. He was unknown outside of Cincinnati, and the result of the election showed that he was not favorably known inside that city. Foraker was defeated, and the Legislature was carried by the Democrats. Henry B. Payne was made Senator, and the country was treated to a most unsavory political scandal. When 1889 came around Foraker was serving his second term as Governor. The precedents of his party retired him at the end of his second term, but he would not have it. The Sherman men assert that he was not really the Governorship that he wanted, but that he only wanted to be Governor to enable him to secure the Senatorship by having absolute control of the machine. It was known that Charles Foster wanted the Senatorship. Foraker did not want to give it to Foster for the honor if he had to meet him on an official footing. Therefore he wanted the Governorship that he might wield the patronage of the office to make a successful fight against the aspirations of Foster. The Sherman men hold that the people were aware of the Governor's design, and that they refused to approve them, not only defeating him for Governor but handing over the Legislature to the Democrats. They were afraid to hold the Legislature lest Foraker would creep into the Senate on the plea of vindictive motives. It is evident that Foraker people did not expect the blows to come. They thought that "the old man," as they call him, would be passive and that they could riot around him with impunity. These return shots have had a telling effect. Foraker's judicious friends deprecated the course which the Sherman men were bent on pursuing. While Foraker is one of the most magnetic men in public life, brilliant and eloquent, it is a notable fact that he is more frequently an impulse than a man of a plan. The result is, he has done many foolish things and some things that were worse than foolish. His true disquiet tends to recognize the fact that there is no man in public life who is more valuable, and they are anxious that nothing should be done which would invite attack. They now say to the gentlemen who provoked it, "You must take care of him." During the week Foraker's chances have been determined that he should come to headquarters, and Tuesday of this week was fixed upon as the time. He arrived in the city Tuesday night, but his headquarters have not been opened, nor will they be for a week, and perhaps, not until the middle of the holidays. Every day members-elect drop into the city ostensibly on various missions, but really to keep track of the situation. They return to their homes befuddled or enthused—as they belong to the non-committal class or the earnest adherent of one of the aspirants. Figures are being made by the knowing ones, but these gentlemen are known to be without information. Foraker's friends count on 52 votes absolutely certain. It will take 47 if the caucus is full, and this gives them 5 more than the necessary number. The Sherman managers are confident of 59 votes, 12 more than are necessary. This estimate is doubtless excessive; 56 would be closer. There are several men a few non-committal members, but a close guess can be made as to their preference. Within the next ten days these reserved statesmen will be smoked out and be compelled to take their places in one of the two columns.

Gov. Foraker is now here to argue a case in the Supreme Court. His presence attracted quite a number of his friends from different points, and while it cannot be said that a fixed conference is being held, much counsel and exchange of views has taken place. Gov. Foraker is unfortunate in the selection of some of his leaders, particularly in the case of George Cox of Cincinnati. There is a stout disposition to sit down on anything that Mr. Cox wants done.

Caught on the Jump.

Three Chinamen came peacefully across the line last night at a hop, skip and jump and landed in the arms of Deputy United States Marshal Marsh and Special Deputy Tom Smallcomb, says the San Diego Union of Tuesday. Deputy Goodrich was down that way last week and learned that the Chinamen were just before a line waiting an opportunity to cross, and he therefore informed the office. The celestials were greatly surprised, but accepted the situation with their usual stolidity. As the Marshal's office desires an immediate and direct ruling from Judge Ross on the interpretation of the exclusion act, they will be taken to Los Angeles for trial. This makes eighty Chinamen for the past eighteen months by the Marshal's office.

THE HOLIDAY RACES.

All the Horses Entered Now at the Track—The Outlook Favorable.

Everything is in readiness for the holiday race meeting which begins on Christmas day. All the horses entered are now at the track, with the exception of Fox and Nevada. These two horses will not be here. The Los Angeles Association expects to popularize winter racing in Los Angeles. This is the first winter meeting held under their auspices. Some of the best horses in the State are now quartered at the track and the association confidently anticipates a large attendance. Running races are very popular in Los Angeles. Ben H. arrived here yesterday. He is entered in several races.

Quite a number of interested parties visited the track yesterday and watched the gallopers at work. Everyone is confident that fast time will be made in every case, especially the mule race on Christmas day.

The regular race days are Friday and Saturday of this week and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the next week.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw, of Vermont avenue, near the city limits, celebrated their golden wedding on last Monday afternoon and evening at their residence. The rarity of similar occasions in this section, and the extensive and appreciative acquaintance of the elderly couple, brought together quite a large gathering from this city and abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw were married in Morgan county, Illinois, on December 21, 1841. He being a native of that county and she of Lincoln county, Kentucky, her maiden name being Malvina E. Rose. Twelve children have been born as the result of that union, ten of whom reached the age of majority and five of whom are now living. These five—Miss Hallie Bradshaw, a public school teacher of this county; Miss Lily Bradshaw and Mrs. Janie Whiteside of this city, Mrs. Ellen Whiteside of Fresno county, and Mrs. Frances Yates of Sutter county, were all present last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw have lived in California since 1861, the last eight years in Los Angeles; previous to 1861 they lived in Oregon for nine years. Whenever and wherever they and their family have been known they have been honored and respected as good and worthy and intelligent men and women. The health of both Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw is such as to give promise of many more years of life.

The following were present last Monday:

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bradshaw, Misses Hallie and Lillie Bradshaw, Mrs. W. Yates and Master Ernest Yates of Sutter county, Mrs. Olney Whiteside and Miss Lena and Master John and Ed Whiteside of Fresno county, Mrs. A. A. Whiteside of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. John Bradshaw and Miss Cynthia Ramsey of Pasadena, Mrs. N. Taylor, Miss Jana Taylor, Miss Emma Bradshaw and Master Arthur Bradshaw of Santa Rosa, Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hodges and Master Wm. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. George Wyman, Master Francis Wyman, Miss Clara Sailor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adcock, Miss Edna Adcock, Miss Hattie Shelton, Miss Randall, Mr. and Mrs. J. Starr, Miss Helen Starr, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Plummer, Master Ray Plummer, Misses Delia and Florence Plummer, Frank Gills, Mrs. Larkin, Miss Cora Snodgrass, Mrs. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marshall of La Verne, Dr. E. Miller, Miss Addie Miller, Mrs. Turbick, Miss Ollie Le Corre, Mrs. J. M. Brooks, Mrs. Electa Whiteside, Mrs. Mary W. White, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lyons, Miss Lurline Lyons, Miss Sadie Lappin, Miss Mary Ames, Mrs. Badham and Mrs. Morrow. A fine turkey dinner was enjoyed by the host and hostess and their friends, and good feeling and hilarity abounded. Many beautiful and costly presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw as mementoes of the occasion. The company departed when their various duties called them, and all will remember with pleasure for many a long day the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradshaw.

WEDDING AT SIMPSON CHURCH.

The marriage of Miss Libbie V. Swerdiger and Edwin W. Falor occurred last evening at Simpson Methodist Church, Rev. W. A. Knight officiating. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Laura Charnock and Charles Falor, a brother of the groom. The ushers were Messrs. Clinton Lee, O. Thomas, Will Knighten and Harry Holcomb.

Mrs. Lee presided at the piano, and the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march and passed down the center aisle to the evergreen arch, which rose before the entrance where they were met by the minister.

The bride wore a becoming gown of a mode shade, and Miss Charnock a pretty evening dress. Mr. and Mrs. Falor will reside at the Lankershim ranch, near San Fernando.

THAT FOREIGN GUEST.

La grippe continues to claim its victims by the score. Among the recent subjects are Dr. S. C. Newton, who is dangerously ill at his residence, No. 228 North Truman street; Mrs. Stillman, who has been confined to her bed for several weeks; Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Deane, who are now convalescent. Clinton Bradley is recovering from a severe wrestle with the Russian monster, and Dr. W. H. Brobeck is just getting out of his clutches.

Miss Bristol, of the Chamber of Commerce, has succumbed and Mrs. McCree, of South Hope street, is convalescing.

Y.M.C.A. ENTERTAINMENT.

The Tuesday evening entertainments given under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. are fast becoming most popular. This is due to the fact that through earnest and energetic effort the best talent that can be found is secured to assist in giving the young men of the association a first-class concert, entertainment or lecture weekly. All the entertainments of the season have been of a superior kind, but last evening's entertainment was one that would have pleased the most fastidious.

Miss Howison, who has lectured extensively in the East upon literary subjects, upon the earnest request of the association gave an evening of readings from the brilliant American poet, James Whitcomb Riley. Miss Howison certainly is worthy of the praise which has been showered upon her.

The following selections were rendered in a most pleasing manner:

"Wet Weather Talk," "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin," "A Hymn of Faith," "My Friend," "My Miller," "An Old-Played Song," "Kissing the Rod," "My Philosophy" and "An Old Sweetheart of Mine."

The readings were interspersed with BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22, 1891.

The situation in the Eastern and foreign wool market is summarized by the following: "There is no general improvement noted in the condition of any of the leading wool markets. Manufacturers as a rule are not well supplied and when a good lot is offered at a price which meets the view of a buyer it is taken, and thus, while the total may be deemed large, the bulk of the sales are confined to a few grades. Thus the Boston market reports a single sale of 300,000 lbs of quarter blood combing, and some very large sales of territories and fleeces, while in New York Texas wools are in best demand. Pulled wools are selling well at former quotations. Fullers report very light stocks on hand as their productions are taken about as fast as they are sent forward. Australian wools are in fair demand. The London sales closed on Tuesday, December 22, at the opening. About 9000 bales were taken for this country. The carpet wool market is very dull and flat."

Thursday will be practically the last business day of the week with wholesale houses of this city, the great majority having signed an agreement to remain closed from Thursday evening to Monday morning.
